REPORT.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

*Poor Law Board, Somerset House,
December 31, 1850.*

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,

We, the Poor Law Board, beg leave to lay before Your Majesty, the following Report of our proceedings during the year 1850 :—

According to the method adopted in our former Reports, we propose in the first place to show the amount of poor's rate expended for purposes connected with the relief of the poor ; and then to exhibit the number of persons in receipt of relief.

A complete return ("The Poor Rate Return") of the expenditure from the poor's rate for purposes connected with the relief of the poor is made up annually, and comprises the period from Lady-day to Lady-day. This return for the year ended at Lady-day 1850, shows an expenditure of 5,395,022*l.*, being a reduction, as compared with the year ended at Lady-day 1849, of 397,941*l.*, or about 6*l.* 18*s.* per cent. Estimating the population in the year ended at Lady-day 1849 at 17,534,000, the sum expended per head on the population in that year will be found to be 6*s.* 6½*d.* ; and estimating the population in the year ended at Lady-day 1850 at 17,765,000, the sum expended per head will be found to be 6*s.* 1*d.*, being a reduction of 5½*d.* per head on the expenditure of the last year, as compared with that of the preceding year.

Years ended Lady-day.	Expended for purposes connected with the Relief of the Poor, in England and Wales.	Decrease in 1850, as compared with 1849.	Decrease per Cent.	Rate per Head on Population.	Decrease per Head in 1850, as compared with 1849.

1850	5,395,022}			6 1}

The above Table comprises all expenses under the following heads, viz., in-maintenance, out-relief, salaries of officers (except assistant overseers and collectors), repayment of loans for building and altering workhouses, and for emigration purposes, together with interest thereon, maintenance of lunatics in asylums, emigration, extra medical relief and fees, and the burial of paupers. These expenses include all charges incident to the relief of the poor, to which the poor rate is subject, as well as the cost of relief itself; and it will be observed, that several of these charges are of such a nature as not to be materially affected by the increase or decrease of pauperism in any particular year.

The "Poor Rate Return," the results of which have now been shown, comprehends the expenditure for, and connected with relief in the whole of England and Wales, including Parishes not in Union, places under Local Acts, and Gilbert's Unions, as well as Unions formed under the Poor Law Amendment Act. This Return, which, as has already been stated, is made up annually for the year ending at Lady-day, is the only document that exhibits the aggregate of the sums disbursed in the whole of England and Wales, from the poor rate, for poor law purposes.

There are, however, other returns, which are made half-yearly, at Lady-day and Michaelmas, showing the expenditure for relief alone in Unions and places to which the General Order of Accounts, dated 17th of March, 1847, was issued by the Poor Law Commissioners. The following Table* contains a summary of these latter Returns from 606 unions and parishes for the years ended at Michaelmas 1849 and 1850 :—

Number of Unions.	Years.	Expenditure for In-maintenance, and Out-door Relief.
		In-maintenance.	Out-door Relief.	Total.
		£.	£.	£.
606 {	Year ended at Michaelmas, 1849	845,121	3,029,200	3,874,321
	,,    ,,    1850	692,269	2,776,227	3,468,496
Decrease in Year ended Michaelmas, 1850		152,852	252,973	405,825 or 10·5 per cent

The aggregate population of the Unions and Parishes comprehended in these Returns is 14,345,636, being nearly nine-tenths of the whole population of England and Wales (Census 1841), and they may therefore be safely taken as affording a fair indication of the rate at which the cost of relief has decreased in the whole country during the year ended at Michaelmas 1850, as compared with the year preceding. Assuming, with respect to places not comprehended in these returns, that the same relative proportion exists between the expenditure of the two years, it will be found that while the total cost of relief in the whole of England and Wales, for the year ended at Michaelmas

* See also Appendix No. 14, p. 116.

1849, was 4,296,000*l.*, the cost for the year ended at Michaelmas 1850, was 3,845,000*l.*, being a reduction of 451,000*l.* in the last year. It is satisfactory to observe that the expenditure for relief has continued to decrease up to the latest period for which returns have been received.

Having thus set forth the results of the Returns which have been made to us during the last year in reference to the cost of relief, and compared them with those of the year preceding, we shall now present the results of the Returns received during the same periods in regard to the number of the recipients of relief. In the month of January 1850, we received Returns showing the number of paupers of all classes who were relieved in 602 Unions, on the 1st of that month. The following Table* exhibits a summary of these Returns, and a comparison with the number relieved on the corresponding day in 1849:—

Similar Returns have been received of the number relieved on the 1st July, 1850, which enable us to present the following comparison† of the number relieved on that day, with the number relieved on the 1st July, 1849:—

Number of Unions.	Year and Day.	Number of Paupers relieved, In-door and Out-door.
		All Classes, except the Insane and Vagrants.	Insane Persons.	Vagrants.	Total of all Classes.

† See also Appendix No. 18, p. 126, and No. 22, p. 138.

It will be seen from these tables, that on each of the days mentioned, viz., 1st January, 1850, and 1st July, 1850, a large reduction has taken place in the number of persons relieved of every class (except the insane) as compared with the number relieved on the corresponding days in 1849.

Distinguishing the adult able-bodied persons relieved on the days named, the following result appears :*

STATEMENT of the NUMBER of Adult Able-bodied Paupers (In-door and Out-door) relieved in 590 UNIONS and single PARISHES under Boards of Guardians in England and Wales, on 1st January, 1849, and 1st January, 1850, respectively.

Decrease on 1st July, 1850, { compared with 1st July, 1849 }		503	25,481	{ 25,984 or 15·8 per Cent.

It will be observed, from this last table, which relates to the adult able-bodied paupers relieved on the 1st July, 1850, that while the reduction in the number of paupers of all classes relieved on that day amounted to only 6·3 per cent., the reduction in the number of adult able-bodied paupers relieved on the same day, amounted to 15·8 per cent.

Returns of the number of persons relieved on the 1st January, 1851, having been received during the progress of printing this Report, we are able to present a comparison between the number relieved on that day, and the number relieved on the corresponding day in 1850. The following Table* exhibits this comparison :—

Distinguishing the adult able-bodied persons relieved on the 1st January, 1851, the result will be as follows:†

We have in former Reports adverted to the means which were used in 1848 to direct the attention of Boards of Guardians to the great increase of vagrancy in the country, and the marked success which immediately followed the more careful and discriminating mode of administering relief to vagrants then recommended. We are gratified to observe that the number of vagrants relieved is still diminishing. The number relieved on the 1st of July, 1848, in 580 Unions, was 13,714; on the 1st July, 1849, the number relieved in the same Unions was 5,662, being a decrease of 8,052; and on the 1st July, 1850, the number relieved in the same Unions was 2,954, being a reduction of 2,708 as compared with the corresponding day in 1849, and of 10,760, or 79·5 per cent., as compared with the corresponding day in 1848.

Emigration.

The emigration of poor persons at the expense of the poor's rate, has continued during the year 1850, to a greater extent, as regards the number of persons emigrating, than in the year 1849. The increase may probably be ascribed, in considerable measure, to the greater facilities for promoting emigration, which Boards of Guardians derive from a recent statute (12 and 13 Vict., c. 103, s. 20). Though the number of persons who have emigrated this year has exceeded that of the preceding year, the aggregate cost to the poor's rate has been less, owing to the aid contributed by Government. A statement given in the Appendix (p. 147,) shows the sum expended out of the poor-rate for this object during the year to be 9,234*l.* 16*s.* 11*d.*, and the number who have emigrated 1,962.

A large majority of the emigrants have proceeded to the Australian colonies, and to New Zealand. Some have gone to the settlement in New Zealand founded by the Canterbury Association. Early in the year our sanction was requested for emigration to Port Natal in South Africa. So far as our information with regard to the then state of that colony extended, it appeared to be unsuitable for the particular class of persons who usually emigrate under the direction of Boards of Guardians; and we found that our apprehensions upon this point were shared by the Colonial Land and Emigration Commissioners. We therefore declined to give our sanction to the proposal.

Education of Pauper Children.

The importance of affording to the children in union work-houses, such an education as may best tend to raise them from the class of paupers to that of independent labourers and artizans, is becoming more and more felt by Boards of Guardians. Still, little progress has been made during the year in the formation of school districts under the provisions of the 7 & 8 Vict., c. 101; and although the matter has in some instances been repeatedly brought before the Guardians of the unions proposed to be included in districts, the number of those opposed to their formation has appeared to be such as to preclude the hope, at all events for the present, and especially in the rural unions, that the provisions of the law in regard to such schools can be made generally available.

School Districts.

The difficulties which are found practically to obstruct the formation of school districts, show that workhouse schools must continue for some time to be the principal means of training pauper children ; and we therefore feel it to be our duty to seek, in conjunction with the Committee of Council on Education, to render these schools as efficient as possible, by raising the standard of the qualification of the teachers, and encouraging Boards of Guardians to increase the means of industrial training.

Workhouse
Schools.

We bear willing testimony to the readiness with which the Guardians generally carry out the recommendations of the Inspectors connected with the Committee of Council, as well as of those attached to this Board, and avail themselves of successful experiments made in particular unions. Our Inspector, Mr. Doyle, reporting on the education of pauper children in his district, says :—“ In some unions, the education of the pauper children has attained to great excellence. There are workhouses, like that of the Atcham Union, in which the children receive an education beyond all comparison better than is within the reach of the children of labourers in any part of the county. In the girls' school of the Ludlow Union, the children now receive an education in all respects superior to what the humbler rate-payers are able to purchase for their children. This high standard of workhouse education is fast ceasing to be exceptional. The example of one good workhouse school operates upon neighbouring unions, and I find a general disposition amongst guardians throughout the district to adopt improvements which are recommended by the experience of other unions. Thus the guardians of almost every union in this district, in which there are upon an average a sufficient number of boys of an age capable of industrial occupation, either have already provided, or have determined to provide the means for their industrial training. The unions of this district being almost exclusively agricultural, the means of industrial training for boys consist chiefly in the cultivation of a few acres of land by spade husbandry. In those unions in which this system can be said to be fairly in operation, it has already been productive of much benefit, and it will be seen, by the detailed accounts furnished from some of them, that this mode of educating the children in habits of industry, is attended with considerable profit to the Guardians. The examples of the Quatt school and of the school of the Atcham union have given a very useful impulse to this method of industrial training.”

In several parts of England the industrial training of children in workhouses, by employing them in agricultural occupations, is receiving special attention ; and Boards of Guardians, in many instances within the last eighteen months, have provided land expressly for this object. Our Inspector, Mr. Farnall, reports that 19 unions in his district have provided land, in the cultivation of which 514 boys are employed. In Sir John Walsham's district, also, some successful experiments have recently been made in the employment of pauper children in agricultural pursuits.

It is gratifying to find that the mental training of these children does not suffer by their withdrawal from the school, to engage during a portion of each day in manual labour in the field. On this point, Mr. Bowyer (Inspector of Workhouse Schools) states, "The introduction of agricultural training has been everywhere attended by a marked improvement in the appearance and bodily vigour of the boys; and their progress in their studies, so far from being retarded by it, has been generally promoted, notwithstanding the reduction in the number of hours devoted to school instruction."*

Care and Education of Pauper Children in the Metropolis.

The arrangements adopted in the metropolitan unions and parishes for the better care and education of pauper children have made progress during the past year, though no new school district has been formed since the date of our last Report.

The Central London District School continues to exhibit satisfactory results, in the healthiness of the children and their early preparation for taking situations in life. The Board of Management have increased the efficiency of the school, by many judicious regulations and by their constant supervision. They have still the advantage of Mr. Aubin's services as their resident superintendent, who employs in their behalf the talents and industry, which he exercised on his own account when he was proprietor of the establishment. The number of children at this school has been increased by the addition of the West London Union to the district, which now comprehends the whole of the city; the addition was made by the mutual desire of the guardians of the West London Union and the Board of Management. The number of children is now 960, of whom 157 are chargeable to the parish of St. Martin-in-the-Fields, the guardians of which parish adhere to the arrangement mentioned by us in our last Report, and still keep their children at this district school.

The Board of Management of the South Metropolitan School District have purchased an extensive and very suitable site, and have selected plans for their building; but a financial difficulty, not wholly removed by the remedial Act 13 & 14 Vict. c. 101, s. 3, prevents their advancing at present in the execution of their plan. The limit which (under the 7 & 8 Vict., c. 101, sec. 44) restrains managers from expending on the school buildings more than one-fifth of the previous annual expenditure of the several unions and parishes of the district on the relief of the poor, leaves the Board of Management of this District without sufficient funds ; and though they are desirous of going beyond the limit, still, as the law now stands, their consent to do so does not warrant the Poor Law Board in authorizing the requisite expenditure. It may probably be necessary to apply to Parliament for a further amendment of the law in this respect.

The Board of Management of the North Surrey School District have opened their school, and received about 350 children, at which number, though their building will accommodate 650, they have paused, in order to complete the internal arrangements and bring the institution into good working order in all its details, before it becomes full. In the work of organization fair progress has been made ; well qualified teachers and other officers have been appointed : and there is already a perceptible improvement in the appearance, the health, and the conduct of the children. In accordance with the opinion we expressed in our last Report that it would be advantageous to add another parish or union to this district, we have, by the desire of the guardians, and with the assent of the managers, added to it the populous and important parish of St. Luke, Chelsea, a parish peculiarly susceptible of the benefits to be derived from such a connection. Overtures have been made by the guardians of the parish of Kensington, and by other Boards of Guardians, to the Board of Managers, having for their object a participation in the advantages of this district school.

The school established at Edmonton by the guardians of the Strand Union, works satisfactorily, though the number of children is too small to admit of a high degree of efficiency. It is not improbable that the children of some other union or parish may be sent for board and education to this school ; and to such a proposition we are prepared to give a favourable consideration.

The guardians of St. George in the East and those of the Whitechapel Union were for some time in correspondence on the subject of uniting to form a school district ; finally, however, each Board determined upon establishing a school independently of the other. For each school an appropriate site has been obtained, out of town ; the plans for the St. George's school are now under our consideration for approval, and we expect soon to have those for the Whitechapel Union School before us.

The schools of the Stepney Union and of Lambeth parish have been enlarged and improved, and those of the parishes of St. Pancras and St. Mary, Newington, have been completed since our last Report.

The Directors of the poor of St. James, Westminster, have obtained a site for their intended school, on Battersea Common.

We feel warranted, from what we are now able to report on the subject of pauper schools in the metropolis, in repeating that a great improvement is going on in the important work of teaching and training the destitute children.

Salaries of Teachers in Workhouse
Schools,— Parliamentary Grant.

The payment of the salaries of workhouse school teachers out of a Parliamentary Grant, the periodical examination of the schools and teachers by the Inspectors of Schools, and the making of the payment out of the grant dependent on a certificate from the Committee of Council, have already contributed materially to the improvement of these schools, and must doubtless continue to do so.

Since the date of our last Report, we have, in concert with the Committee of Council, modified the plan regulating the distribution of the grant in aid of the salaries of teachers, in order to remove the anomaly which occurred when the amount allowed to a teacher had reference only to his qualification, without regard to the number of scholars under his charge; so that the highest rate of allowance was occasionally paid to a teacher in charge of a school having the lowest number of scholars.

The present plan* is as follows:—

Schoolmasters holding certificates of efficiency, receive from the grant 30*l.* a year, together with 5*s.* for each of the average number of children in the school, up to the maximum payment of 60*l.*, where the certificate is No. 1; 55*l.* where it is No. 2; and 50*l.* where it is No. 3.

Schoolmasters holding certificates of competency, receive 25*l.*, together with 4*s.* for each of the average number of children in the school, up to the maximum payment of 45*l.*, where the certificate is No. 1; 40*l.* where it is No. 2; and 35*l.* where it is No. 3.

Schoolmasters holding certificates of probation, receive 20*l.*, together with 3*s.* for each of the average number of children in the school, up to the maximum payment of 30*l.*, where the certificate is No. 1; 25*l.* where it is No. 2; where it is No. 3, the salary remains at 20*l.*

Schoolmasters holding certificates of permission, No. 1, receive 15*l.* a year; No. 2, 10*l.* a year; and No. 3, 5*l.* a year. Teachers holding certificates of this class, are not entitled to any addition from the grant on account of the number of scholars under their care.

The payments from the grant to schoolmistresses are in the proportion of four-fifths of those allowed to schoolmasters holding corresponding certificates of qualification.

Contractors'
Establishment.

In our last Report we had occasion to advert to the Contractors' Establishments in and near London, wherein paupers, whether adults or children, had during many previous years been maintained. For the regulation of these houses the 12 & 13 Vict., c. 13, had been passed, the provisions of which Act brought them under our control. We mentioned that most of these houses had been discontinued, and that there remained only one such establishment near London, and two at Margate, and we described the measures which we had thought it proper to take for their better management. The same three establishments still exist; but that at Brixton will be given up in March next, when the children, about 160 in number, now maintained there, who are all chargeable to the parish of St. Mary, Newington, will be transferred to the new school buildings erected by the guardians for their reception. The two establishments at Margate are found useful for children and other paupers of scrofulous habit, who are sent thither from London for the benefit of their health.

Our last Report noticed the state of the proceedings upon the writ of mandamus, which had been obtained against the incorporation of the poor of the city of Bristol, requiring them to produce their accounts to the district auditor. We then stated, that a writ of error had been sued out upon the judgment pronounced in favour of the mandamus by the Court of Queen's Bench, and that the question would be finally determined at the sittings after the approaching Hilary Term. Accordingly the argument then took place before the Court of Exchequer Chamber, and the judgment of the Court of Queen's Bench was affirmed. A peremptory writ followed, and the Guardians have since submitted their accounts to the Auditor.

Incorporation of the Poor of Bristol—Refusal to Submit Accounts for Audit—
Mandamus.

The state of the Oswestry incorporation had in several respects called for the particular attention of the Poor Law Board and we had directed our Inspector to examine into the administration of relief within that district. This incorporation is constituted and governed by a local Act, and the directors of the poor, who administer the relief under it, entertained an opinion that this Board had no legal authority to control, or in any manner to interfere with them. Accordingly they declined to allow our inspector to be present as a matter of right at their meetings. We deemed it necessary to take the necessary steps to have the authority of the Board established, and a mandamus was applied for, requiring the directors to admit the inspector to their meetings. A rule nisi was obtained, but before the day for showing cause arrived, the directors, having taken legal advice, acknowledged the authority of the Board, and admitted the inspector. Various orders have since been issued to the incorporation for the regulation of relief, and the appointment of officers. These have been acquiesced in and duly acted upon.

Oswestry Incorporation.

The corporation of the poor of the city of Chester, though included in an audit district, had declined to submit their accounts to the district auditor, on a similar objection to that urged by the incorporation of Bristol, and it had been arranged that they would abide the result of the proceedings against the latter incorporation. When the judgment had been pronounced upon the writ of error affirming the validity of the order by which the district auditor was appointed for the city of Bristol,

Chester In-
corporation.

the Guardians of the city of Chester raised no further difficulty, but submitted their accounts to the Auditor.

The Board finding the mode by which relief was administered in the city of Chester unsatisfactory, principally in consequence of the peculiar state of the law applicable to that city, which is governed by a local Act, have deemed it necessary to issue an order directing the appointment of a relieving officer, and also the prohibitory order.

Dissolution of Manchester
Union—
New Unions formed.

The state of the Manchester Union, which consisted of the extensive and populous township of Manchester, and eleven contiguous townships, chiefly rural, had been for some time under the consideration of the Poor Law Board. It appeared to be very difficult to provide duly, under the then existing combination, for the interests of the component townships of the union; and the Guardians were unanimous in urging upon us its dissolution, and the substitution of entirely new arrangements. After full deliberation we thought it right to accede to the proposal. It was carried into effect by means of three Orders, which we issued in the course of the spring. By the first, the Manchester Union was dissolved; by the second, the Prestwich Union* was formed, consisting of the eleven townships separated from Manchester; and by the third, we directed the appointment of a Board of Guardians for the township of Manchester alone.

We have formed another union in the course of the year, namely the Hemsworth Union,* in the West Riding of Yorkshire, consisting of twenty-three townships.

houses.

Great progress has been made during the year in providing workhouses for unions in which they have been much wanted. Thus, a large and excellent new union workhouse at Oldham has been opened for the reception of inmates, and will, no doubt, be found extremely beneficial to that important union. New union workhouses have also been built in the Kirkby Moorside, Easington, and Stockton-on-Tees unions. In the Bradford, Wortley, Ashton-under-Lyne, Leigh, and Warrington unions, new union workhouses are in a forward state, and will be ready for occupation in the course of next spring. In the Truro and Bedwelty (Monmouth) unions, workhouses are in the course of erection. In the Barnsley union, (which was formed only last year) and in the Salford, Falmouth, and Swansea Unions, the Guardians are about to erect new workhouses. The authorities in the united parishes of Kingston-upon-Hull, and the incorporation of Plymouth are also taking steps for the same purpose. The workhouse at Liverpool has been considerably enlarged and improved. We entertain a sanguine hope that in many cases in which old and ill-arranged workhouses are still retained, the Guardians are becoming sensible of the advantages which must result from abandoning them for new establishments adapted to the improved administration of the Poor Laws.

32. The returns received by the Board on the subject of <sup>Vaccination.</sup> Vaccination during the year, show a slight decrease in the number vaccinated above one year old; but there is an increase in the number vaccinated under that age. The Board attach great importance to the provision which the legislature has made in reference to vaccination, and they take every fitting opportunity of urging upon the guardians the extension of its benefits as widely as possible. The Notes of the Registrars of Births and Deaths appended to the Quarterly Reports of the Registrar-General afford valuable information as to the prevalence of small-pox in particular localities, and the Board lose no opportunity of referring the guardians to those notes in order that they may adopt the necessary precautions to arrest the further progress, and prevent the future recurrence, of so formidable an epidemic. The Board regret to state that in many places a prejudice against vaccination still continues to exist amongst the labouring classes. The total number vaccinated in England and Wales during the year, was 334,364. A summary of the Returns for the year ended 29th September, 1850, is given in the Appendix, No. 29, p. 154.

Notwithstanding the consolidation of the most important of <sup>Orders issued by the Poor Law Board.</sup> the regulations of the Poor Law Commissioners, in 1847, in one General Order, we find it necessary to issue separate orders for a great variety of purposes, such as authorizing the sale of parish property, the appropriation of money arising from the sale of such property, the making of parochial surveys and valuations, the expenditure of money for the emigration of poor persons, the confirmation or remission of disallowances by auditors. It will be observed, by a statement in the Appendix (No. 34, p. 162,) that we have issued, during the year 1850, 1,076 orders of this miscellaneous character.

Questions affecting the appointment, salaries, and conduct of <sup>Paid Officers their Appointment, Salaries, &c.</sup> paid officers employed in the administration of the Poor Laws, have necessarily occupied much of our attention, and when it is considered that these officers number nearly 13,000, it is no matter of surprise to find several cases arising in the course of the year which require lengthened investigations by our Inspectors on the spot. The following statement (p. 14) shows the number of the several classes of paid officers at present employed in 604 Unions and Parishes under Boards of Guardians, and 30 places under local Acts, &c., together with the total and the average amounts of the fixed salaries paid to them:—

Superannuation Fund for Union Officers.

The attention of the Poor Law Board was carefully directed, in the early part of the last session of Parliament, to the subject of a superannuation fund for union officers. A very natural wish for the establishment of such a fund had been expressed by the officers in all parts of the country. The Board, though fully approving the object proposed, were of opinion that it could only be effected by means of contributions or deductions from the salaries of the officers themselves, without resort either to the poor's rate, or to any other fund of a public character. A plan, framed upon this principle, by a committee of union officers, was submitted to the Board, in order that it might be made the groundwork of a legislative measure. Considering, however, that such a measure would effect compulsory deductions from the salaries of all the officers to whom it applied, the Board thought it just that every officer should have the opportunity of pronouncing a judgment upon it before it was submitted to Parliament. Accordingly, the draft of a Bill was prepared, and circulated among the union-officers throughout the country. The result showed that the precaution was a judicious one. Though many approved, so large a proportion of the whole number signified their disapprobation, as to make it clear that the union officers differed widely and irreconcilably among themselves as to the policy and justice of the proposed measure, and that it would probably encounter active opposition from many of those for whose benefit it was intended. The Board had been of opinion from the first, that a measure of this description, founded upon the principle of a compulsory deduction from all salaries, ought not to be pressed against the will of any considerable number of the officers, and therefore no further progress was made with the Bill.

In the course of the last session of Parliament, several statutes were passed of much practical importance in their connection with the subject of the poor laws. Amendments of the Law.

By one of these, the chargeability to the union fund of certain classes of paupers, is continued for another year. It will be remembered that these classes comprehend all who were rendered irremovable under the provisions of the Poor Removal Act (9 and 10 Vict., cap. 66), besides destitute wanderers, wayfarers, and foundlings, and those lunatic paupers who are maintained in asylums and licensed houses, and who, if not lunatic, would have been exempt from removal by virtue of some provision of the Poor Removal Act. [13 and 14 Vict. c. 101, sec. 1.] — as respects Paupers chargeable to the Common Fund.

The burial of paupers who die in the workhouse is a subject upon which the law was by no means clear, and with regard to which, especially during the late prevalence of cholera, great practical difficulties arose. By the 7 and 8 Vict., cap. 101, sec. 56, it had been enacted, that for the purpose of the burial of any inmate, the workhouse of a union should be deemed to be constructively situated in the parish to which the deceased had been chargeable in his life-time. It followed from this provision, combined with sec. 31 of the same Act, that the guardians were bound (even though no wish to that effect might have been expressed by the deceased or by any surviving relative,) to bury the body in the parish of the chargeability, which might be many miles distant from the workhouse, and where the burial-ground might possibly be already over-crowded. Nor had the guardians any legal authority (however they might wish it,) to contribute out of their funds, towards the purchase of any new burial-ground, or the enlargement of any burial-ground already existing. During the prevalence of the late epidemic, this state of the law had frequently been productive of great embarrassment. The Act of last session has made an important change in this respect. The guardians are now authorized to contribute towards the enlargement, or the obtaining of a public burial-ground in any parish of the union, and in every such case they are authorized to bury in it the body of any poor person dying in the workhouse, except where a wish to the contrary has been expressed by the deceased, or by the husband or wife of the deceased, or by the next of kin. —as respects the Burial of Paupers.

The emigration of the poor is a subject with regard to which the legislature had made certain provisions of very limited application, in the original Poor Law Amendment Act [13 and 14 Vict. c. 101, sec. 2.] — as respects the Emigration of Orphan and Deserted Children.

(4 and 5 Wm. IV., c. 76, s. 62.) Under that Act, parishes were enabled to facilitate the emigration of their own settled poor, by defraying the whole or part of the attendant expenses. A subsequent Act (11 and 12 Vict., c. 110, s. 5), empowered the guardians of any union to afford pecuniary aid, out of the common fund, for the emigration of poor persons, who had been rendered irremovable from any parish of the union under the provisions of the Poor Removal Act (9 and 10 Vict., c. 66). A still later statute (12 and 13 Vict., c. 103, s. 20), gave additional facilities for the emigration of the settled poor. But there remained a large, and in many respects, a highly interesting class of poor, for whose emigration, however desirable, no legal provision had been made, namely, those orphan and deserted children, who though chargeable, were neither settled inhabitants of any parish, nor irremovable. The Act of last session enables the guardians to afford means for the emigration of this class, at the expense of the poor-rate; but, with a view to the more complete protection of the children, it is expressly provided that no such emigration shall take place, until the consent of each child has been expressed before magistrates in petty session, and certified under the hands of two of the magistrates to the Poor Law Board.

[13 and 14
Vict. c. 101,
sec. 5.]

—as respects
the Maintenance of Married
Women in Lunatic
Asylums, &c.

The general obligation of a husband to provide a maintenance for his wife, whenever he has the ability to do so, has long been secured by law in ordinary cases. There was one important exception, however, where the wife, having become lunatic, had been removed under legal authority to a lunatic asylum. In cases of this kind, it was at least doubtful, whether there existed any means of compelling the husband to contribute towards the expense of her maintenance in the asylum. Great hardship has been frequently occasioned to parishes, who have been burthened with the heavy expense of such maintenance, without the means of obtaining from the husband even a partial reimbursement. It is now enacted, however, that when a married woman is maintained as a lunatic patient in an asylum or licensed house at the charge of any parish or union, her husband may be compelled, by the order of two justices, to pay either the whole expense or such portion of it as the justices may think proper upon consideration of all the circumstances of the particular case.

[13 and 14
Vict. c. 101,
sec. 4.]

—as respects
the Appointment of Workhouse
Masters and Relieving
Officers to Parochial Offices.

The efficient and satisfactory administration of the Poor Law within any Union depends so materially upon the workhouse master and the relieving officer, that it has long been deemed essential to require the dedication of their whole time to the performance of their duties. But notwithstanding an express stipulation to this effect on the part of the Guardians, it has sometimes happened that the object has been defeated by the appointment of those officers to parochial offices such as those of overseer, constable, or surveyor, the duties of which, if regularly appointed, they were bound to undertake, with whatever prejudice to the proper discharge of their duties in the administration of the Poor Law. It has now, therefore, been enacted, [13 and 14 Vict. c. 101, sec. 6.] that no workhouse master or relieving officer shall be competent to hold any parochial or township office; with this exception, however, that the relieving officer may hold any paid office in a parish or township with the express consent of the Poor Law Board, which of course will never be given unless it be perfectly clear that his duties (as in the case of a registrar, for example, in some particular district) may be performed without interference with the proper discharge of his paramount duties as a Poor Law officer.

Former statutes (55 Geo. III., c. 137, sec. 2, and 7 & 8 Vict., c. 101, sec. 58) had provided for the punishment, by imprisonment, of persons absconding from workhouses and carrying away with them clothes, utensils, tools, &c., belonging to the workhouse. By an oversight, however, no power had been given to add hard labour to the imprisonment. This is now done by a clause of the Act of last session. —as respects Persons Absconding from Workhouses with Workhouse Property; and Assaults on Poor Law Officers. [13 and 14 Vict. c. 101, sec. 6.]

Another provision of the Act has given to workhouse officers and relieving officers the same wholesome protection as that already afforded by law to constables and revenue officers, by enacting that assaults upon them when in the due execution of their duty, shall be punishable with imprisonment and hard labour, and that the costs of the prosecution for every such offence shall be payable out of the county rate. [13 and 14 Vict. c. 101]

Some duties of an important character are cast upon the Poor Law Board by another statute of last session, viz., the 13 & 14 Vic., cap. 57, intituled "An Act to prevent the holding of vestry or other meetings in churches, and for regulating the appointment of vestry clerks." Hitherto, whenever the inhabitants of a parish have been convened for any parochial purpose, the ordinary and legal place of meeting has been the vestry of the parish church. Besides the inconvenience resulting in many cases from the smallness of the vestry-room, which has often occasioned an adjournment to the body of the church itself, an inconvenience of a still more serious nature has been experienced from the angry and almost riotous contests to which parish meetings have not unfrequently given rise, sometimes calling forth the censures of the Ecclesiastical Court, and always occasioning scandal and pain on account of their incongruity with the sacred character of the church in which, or in the precincts of which, such contests have taken place. With a view of obviating these evils hereafter, it is now enacted that in any parish where the population exceeds two thousand persons, the Poor Law Board may, on an application proceeding from the churchwardens, and founded on the reso- —as respects Vestries and Vestry Clerks. [13 and 14 Vict. c. 57, sec. 1.]

lution of a vestry meeting, issue an order under seal, the effect of which will be to authorize the holding of parish meetings in some convenient building or room provided for the purpose, and to prevent such meetings for any merely secular object from being at any time afterwards held in the church, or (except under special circumstances,) in the vestry-room attached to it. Under other provisions of the same statute, the Poor Law Board, on receiving a similar application from any parish having a population exceeding two thousand, may order the vestry to elect a vestry clerk, who is to perform the particular duties specified in the statute, and such other duties of a like nature as the Poor Law Board may require.

So many applications have already been made to the Board for orders under this Act of Parliament, as to show that a great number of parishes are likely to avail themselves of its provisions.

—as respects
the rating of
Small Tenements.
13 & 14 Vic.
c. 99.

Another statute of great public importance was passed in the last session (13 and 14 Vic., c. 99), which enables any parish, by a resolution of vestry, to assess, in all rates for the relief of the poor and for the repairs of the highways, the owners, instead of the occupiers, of all tenements the yearly rateable value of which does not exceed six pounds. The Act usually known as Mr. Sturges Bourne's Act (59 Geo. III., c. 12), had given a similar power to rate owners instead of occupiers, in respect of tenements let at any rent between twenty pounds and six pounds. The new Act, like that of Mr. Sturges Bourne, is permissive not imperative; any parish may adopt its provisions by the order of a vestry meeting, and may either continue to do so permanently, or may, at any time after the expiration of two years from the date of the original order, rescind that order by means of another resolution in vestry. In a great many parishes the Act has already been brought into operation. The Poor Law Board have issued an Instructional letter* upon the subject for the purpose of assisting the parish officers in the discharge of the new duties which the Act imposes; and, with the same view, have also modified the form of poor-rate prescribed in the General Order of Accounts.†

All which we most humbly submit to Your Majesty.

To the Clerk or Clerks to the Justices of the Petty Sessions held for the division or divisions in which the said several Unions and the said parish of Great Yarmouth are respectively situate ;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the Poor Law Commissioners, by an Order bearing date the seventeenth day of March, One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, being a general rule, addressed (amongst others) to the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions mentioned in the First Schedule hereunto annexed, and the Poor Law Board, by divers orders, the dates whereof are respectively set forth in the Second Schedule hereunto annexed, addressed to the several Unions and to the Parish of Great Yarmouth therein also set forth, did, among other matters, order and direct the Overseers of the poor of every parish in the said respective Unions, and the Overseers of the poor of the said parish of Great Yarmouth, to keep, among other things, a book termed a Rate Book, according to the forms and directions in the Schedules A. to the said several orders annexed.

And whereas in many parishes, by virtue of several statutes in that behalf, the owners of certain tenements and hereditaments in such statutes particularly described are liable to be assessed to the rates levied for the relief of the Poor in the place of the occupiers of such tenements and hereditaments, and it is expedient that a form of rate should be prescribed to meet such cases.

Now, therefore, we, the Poor Law Board, in pursuance of the powers given in and by the several statutes in that behalf made and provided, do hereby order and direct, that in every parish comprised in the several Unions in the Schedules hereunto annexed, and in the said Parish of Great Yarmouth, when, under the provision of any statute or statutes in that behalf, the owners of tenements and hereditaments liable to Poor Rates in any such parish shall be assessed instead of the occupiers, the Overseers of such parish shall, and in any parish wherein the owners shall not be so assessed, the Overseers at any time may enter the Rates to be hereafter levied for the relief of the poor in a rate book in the following Form, containing the particulars therein set forth :—

“ Clerk to the Board of Management.”

Art. 9.—The clerk shall, three clear days before the day appointed for auditing the school Accounts, deposit the said half-yearly statement of the accounts, together with the ledgers, in the Board Room of the Managers of the District, or such other place as the Board of Management may appoint, and shall permit the said statement and ledgers to be inspected, examined, and copied by any rate-payer or owner of property in the district, in the presence of the clerk or some other person approved of by the Board of Management, at any reasonable hour in the day time, when the Board of Management shall not be sitting, after the said statement and ledgers shall be so deposited, and previous to the day appointed for the auditing thereof.

Art. 10.—In case the auditing of any of the said accounts shall be adjourned for any longer period than from day to day, the clerk, on receiving from the auditor notice thereof, shall affix, in manner aforesaid, notice of the time and place of such adjournment, and of the accounts remaining to be audited, as often as such adjournment shall be made.

Art. 11.—Within fourteen days after the 25th day of March and the 29th day of September in every year, the clerk, without waiting for the completion of the said statements or for the audit, shall transmit to the Poor Law Board the following particulars for the half-year just ended as computed by him at the time :

1. Cost of the maintenance of the children in the school for the district, in the half-year just ended.
2. Amount of the cost of the school establishment, salaries, and all other common charges.
3. Amount of the principal of loans repaid, and the interest thereon.

Art. 12.—The superintendent shall, within seven days after the end of each half-year, insert in the proper columns, according to the Form in Schedule A, numbered 6, called The List and Statement of Account, for every Union in the district, or with the consent of the Board of Management, in a separate list containing similar columns, the name of every child chargeable to every such Union during the previous half-year, together with the number of days each child has been maintained in the school.

Such list, when filled up by the Superintendent, shall be delivered by him to the clerk, who shall examine the entries made therein, and shall certify to the accuracy thereof by his signature. The clerk shall also make out, in the form given at the foot of such list, a complete statement of the account of each Union with the district board, and shall sign the same.

Art. 13.—The Managers may, if they think fit, pay to each officer who has not been removed or suspended from his or her office, and who is entitled to receive from them payment of any salary, whether by way of annual stipend, poundage, or other emolument, on account of such salary, the amount which may be due at the expiration of every quarter, provided the accounts of such officer shall have been presented by him or her to the Board of Management duly made up. The Managers may, however, if they think fit, defer the payment of the salary of any officer until his or her accounts shall have been allowed by the auditor.

AUDITING OF ACCOUNTS.

Art. 14.—The auditor shall audit the accounts of the district, up to the 29th day of September last, as soon as he can do so conveniently, and henceforth once in every half-year, that is to say, as soon as may be after the 25th day of March and the 29th day of September respectively. Provided always, that if the auditor shall see fit, in any special case, with the consent of the Poor Law Board, to hold an extraordinary audit, either of the whole or of any portion of the accounts of the school, in addition to the ordinary audit, at any time between such two days, it shall be the duty of any person who would be or would have been accountable at the ordinary audit to account at such special audit in like form and manner as at such ordinary audit, so far as the same shall be applicable to such special audit; and the surcharge, allowance, disallowance, or decision of the auditor on any item, or other matter, at such special audit, shall, so far as regards the provisions and regulations which may be contained in any Order of the Poor Law Board, have the same effect as if the same were made or given at the ordinary audit of the accounts of such school.

Art. 15.—The auditor shall give to the clerk fourteen days' notice in writing of the time and place on and at which he intends to commence the audit of the accounts of the school.

Art. 16.—The officers of the district, who by law are bound to account to such auditor, shall attend at the time and place appointed by him for the audit of their accounts, and shall submit to the auditor all books, documents, bills, and vouchers containing or relating to their accounts; and the same shall at the time of the audit be open to the inspection of any owner of property or rate-payer interested in such accounts, but to such extent and in such manner only as will not in the judgment of the said auditor interfere with the audit.

Art. 17.—In auditing the accounts, the auditor shall see that they have been kept and are presented in proper form; that the particular items of receipt and expenditure are stated in detail, and that the payments are supported by adequate vouchers and authority; and he shall ascertain whether all sums received, or which ought to have been received, are brought into account; and he shall examine whether the expenditure is in all cases such as might lawfully be made; and he shall reduce such payments and charges as are exorbitant, and disallow and strike out such as are contrary to the orders, rules, and regulations of the Poor Law Board, or are not otherwise authorized by law.

Art. 18.—The auditor shall examine and collate the several books and papers of account of the several accounting parties; and shall ascertain that the several entries correspond with and balance each other, where such balance may be required.

Art. 19.—The auditor shall compute the said accounts so as to verify the arithmetical accuracy thereof, and the balance due to or from the officers rendering the same at the time of the audit; and he shall state the balance in words at length, and certify the same by his signature or initials, and add the date of the audit.

Art. 20.—The auditor shall receive any objection made by a rate-payer or any person aggrieved against the accounts undergoing audit, or any item or charge therein, or any vouchers or authority for the same, and shall examine into the merits of such objection, and make a decision respecting the same.

Art. 21.—If the auditor shall doubt the correctness of any account, or any item or charge in any account, he shall require the officer rendering the account, or any other person holding or accountable for any money, books, deeds, or chattels, relating to the poor rates or the relief of the poor, to appear before him, and shall call upon such person to produce any accounts, books, or papers which he may lawfully require; and he shall examine such officer or person, and accounts, books, and papers as may appear or be produced before him, respecting such account, item, or charge.

Art. 22.—If the auditor find that any money, goods, or chattels belonging to the district have been purloined, embezzled, wasted, or misapplied, or that any deficiency or loss has been incurred by the negligence or misconduct of any officer or other person accounting, and shall surcharge such officer or person with such amount or value in his account, he shall submit a statement of such amount or value to the Board of Management as soon as he conveniently can do so.

Art. 23.—The auditor having audited the several accounts in the ledger, shall sign a certificate at the foot of the balance sheet therein, to the following effect:—

“I have examined the several accounts of which the foregoing is the balance sheet, and I have compared the several payments credited to the treasurer with the vouchers, and I hereby certify that the entries appear to be correct and legal. And that [when the balance in the treasurer's book does not agree with the balance in the ledger], subject to the explanation below [the difference to be explained at the foot of the certificate], the balance of the treasurer's account, viz., £ , agrees with the balance which by his own book appears to have been in his hands at the time of closing such account.

"Dated

(Signed)

"Auditor."

And in the other books the auditor shall make a note or mark of his having audited the same.

Art. 24.—The auditor shall, at the close of each audit of the accounts of the district, transmit to the Poor Law Board a statement, in the Form in the Schedule C., numbered 19, of the books directed by this order to be kept by the officers, showing which, if any, is not kept at all, or is imperfectly kept.

Art. 25.—The auditor shall, at the close of the audit next after the 25th day of March in every year, transmit to the Poor Law Board a statement, in the Form in the Schedule C., numbered 20, setting forth the name of each officer required to give a bond, and whether such bond, together with any certificate or proof that each of the sureties named therein is living, and is not bankrupt or insolvent, was produced to him at such audit; and also, in the column headed "Observations," stating any defects in such securities.

And the auditor shall, at the close of such audit of the accounts, report to the Board of Management the fact of such bonds and certificates having been produced to him, together with any defects in such securities.

Art. 26.—The personal representatives of an officer accountable under this order dying before the half-yearly audit of his accounts, shall, so far as they may be by law required, account, in conformity with the provisions herein contained, in the place of such deceased officer; and all regulations affecting the accounts of such officer shall, so far as is otherwise lawful, affect the accounts of the personal representatives of such officer.

Art. 27.—If the clerk, superintendent, or other officer accountable under this or any other order of the Poor Law Board, shall resign his or her office or be removed therefrom before the audit of his accounts, such person shall lay before the Board of Management, at a time to be fixed by them, a true and complete account of all monies, matters, and things committed to the charge of, or collected, received, held, or distributed by such person on behalf of the district, in such form as he would have had to produce them before the auditor at the end of the current half-year if he had so long continued in office; and shall deliver over all balances, books, papers, matters, and things in his hands, to the Board of Management, or to the person whom they may appoint to receive the same, subject always to the liability of such person to account to the auditor at the audit, and without prejudice to the power of the auditor to allow or disallow the account of such person or any charge therein, or to surcharge him in respect of any charge to which he might be liable.

Art. 28.—Every person voluntarily undertaking to fulfil either wholly or in part the duties of any officer affected by this order, shall, so far as relates to the accounts prescribed by this order to be kept or presented by any such officer, keep and present such accounts in the same form and manner as any such officer is by this order directed to keep and present such accounts.

Art. 29.—The clerk shall, at all reasonable times, at the request of any owner of property or rate-payer in the district, permit him to inspect the statements of the accounts for the twelve months prior to the last audit.

AND, in reference to the PURCHASE and CUSTODY of BOOKS and PAPERS for the accounts, we do hereby order and direct, as follows:—

Art. 30.—The books and papers of account required for the clerk, the superintendent, and the medical and other officers of the district, shall be purchased by the Board of Management, at the common charge of the district.

Art. 31.—The books and papers of account in current use shall remain in the custody of the proper officers accounting, and shall be produced and exhibited at the ordinary meetings of the managers, and whenever else the Board of Management may require their production, as well as on other lawful occasions.

Art. 32.—The books and papers, containing the accounts which are closed, shall be deposited for safe custody with such persons, and at such place or places, as the Board of Management may from time to time direct.

No. 3.

CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to the BOARDS of GUARDIANS on the mode of filling up the Financial Statement, Form 17, in the Schedule to the General Accounts Order of 17 March, 1847.

*Poor Law Board, Somerset House,
15th March, 1850.*

[Financial Statement, Form 17.]

SIR,

THE POOR LAW BOARD desire to draw your attention to some points relative to the mode of preparing the Financial Statement, Form 17, with the view of securing greater uniformity and accuracy in these documents than exist at present.

The Board advert in the first place to their letter of the 1st November last on the subject of the repayments from the Treasury of the Medical Officers' and Schoolmasters' and Schoolmistresses' salaries. The Board advised therein that the full amount of the Salaries paid by the Unions to these officers should be included in the column No. 13, which is headed "Salaries of Officers and other Common Charges;" and that the repayment by the Treasury should be entered on the "Receipts" side of the statement, under the last parochial entry, thus—"Repaid by the Paymaster of the Civil Services, in respect of the Salaries of the Medical Officers, and Schoolmaster and Schoolmistress," the amount of such repayment being entered in the column headed "Total" on the same side of the statement.

But it has appeared that according to the mode adopted by many Boards of Guardians in adjusting the common charges this course could not be conveniently carried out.

The Board therefore recommend that the sum received from the Treasury should be deducted from the gross amount of the common charges, and the balance divided among the several parishes in the Union, according to the averages. The sums must appear in the column of the statement appropriated to them, and at the foot of it should be entered the amount received from the Treasury in one sum. And that the two sides of the Account may balance, the same sum must be entered on the receipt side of the statement as recommended in the Circular Letter referred to.

The Board also request that you will give the amount of salaries due to each of the paid officers for the half year at the foot of the statement on the left-hand side, and then carry the total to the opposite side and place it under "principal particulars of the common charges" as "amount of salaries and rations brought forward." It is also desirable that all the other items charged to the common fund, should be entered here, so that under the title "other expenses charged to the common fund," shall be collected such small disbursements as are too minute to be separately particularized, and thus the result may agree with the total of the column No. 13.

The Board find that items of receipt and expenditure are frequently placed in the columns "other receipts" or "other separate charges," without specifying from what source the receipt was derived, or for what purpose the amount was expended; and they request that care may be taken that this information may be duly supplied in future.

In some statements also, entries appear at the foot, as sums expended for relief to irremovable poor, and for relief to destitute wanderers and wayfarers, without any distinction between the relief to in-door and out-door poor; the Board request that this distinction may be always shewn in the statement.

The Board think that this communication will be elucidated by the accompanying example.

I am, &c.,

W. G. LUMLEY,

Assistant Secretary.

To

The Clerk of the Guardians.

CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to BOARDS of GUARDIANS, on a Superannuation Fund for Poor Law Officers.

Poor Law Board, Somerset House,
15th April, 1850.

SIR,

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to state, that they have had under their consideration the means of providing a superannuation allowance for the officers engaged in the administration of the laws for the relief of the poor.

The subject presents great difficulty when viewed with reference to the only mode of securing this provision which is likely to obtain the assent of the legislature.

A draft of a Bill has been submitted to the Poor Law Board by parties representing many of those officers, in which the Board have made some alterations, which appeared to them to be requisite. But before they express their acquiescence in its provisions, and recommend its being presented to Parliament, they are desirous of ascertaining to what extent the proposal meets with the approval of those officers whom it concerns, throughout the whole of England.

The Board therefore transmit herewith several copies of the draft, one for yourself, and the rest to be distributed by you to the master of the workhouse, the relieving officers, and any other officers of your union who are interested in the subject, for perusal. The Board will be ready to receive any communication from those who dissent from the measure; and at the same time will be glad to learn from yourself, at your earliest convenience, how far the same meets with approval in your union.

I am, &c.

(Signed)

W. G. LUMLEY,

To

Assistant Secretary.

The Clerk to the Guardians.

DRAFT of a Bill referred to in the above Circular, intituled "An Act to authorise the establishment of a Poor Law Officers' Superannuation Fund."

WHEREAS it is expedient that persons who serve in certain offices connected with the administration of the laws for the relief of the poor in parishes and unions, should be required to make provision for securing to themselves on resigning such offices a maintenance during old age or other infirmity.

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same, that it shall be lawful for the Poor Law Board as soon after the passing of this Act as they shall see fit, by an order under their seal to be published in the London Gazette, to declare that a Poor Law Officers' Superannuation Fund shall be established accordingly, and the provisions of this Act shall thenceforth be in full force and effect.

The Poor Law Board may establish a Poor Law Parish and Union Officers' Superannuation Fund.

II. And be it enacted that the Poor Law Board shall thereupon undertake the collection, management, and distribution of such fund, and make such rules and regulations for the same as they may from time to time see fit. And appoint Officers, &c., to manage same.

III. And be it enacted that the superannuation allowances authorized by the Act shall extend to all such officers of parishes or unions as shall be set forth and enumerated in the said order for the establishment of the fund, but no auditor, chaplain, medical officer, schoolmaster or schoolmistress, collector or assistant overseer, shall be included therein. Act to extend to Officers enumerated in the Order of Commissioners, and others may be added.

Provided always that it shall be lawful for the said Board from time to time, by any order under their seal, to be published in the London Gazette, to add to the list of offices enumerated in their first said order, any other office or offices which now exist or may hereafter be created or established connected with the administration of the law for the relief of the poor, and not being such as are hereinbefore excepted, and to place the same and the officers employed therein under the provisions of this Act, and all the provisions of this Act and all the powers, authorities, and clauses herein contained, shall in every case apply and be put in force with respect to every office which shall be so added as aforesaid, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if it had been originally specified in the said first order.

IV. And be it enacted that there shall be an annual deduction after the rate of two pounds ten shillings per cent. per annum, made in quarterly proportions, from the salaries of the several officers employed in such offices as may be specified in the said first order made by the said Board, or to be specified in any addition authorized to be made thereto and not within the exceptions thereof, which sums shall be deducted, collected, and received, in such manner and by and from such persons as the said Board shall by an order under their seal direct, and shall be from time to time paid to the account of the said Board, and shall be invested as the said Board shall from time to time direct, and the fund so created as well as the dividends and interest accruing thereon shall be applicable to the purposes of this Act as the said Board shall deem proper. Deductions to be made from Salaries and paid over to the Poor Law Board for the purpose of investment.

V. And be it enacted that from and after the making of such order by the said Board for the establishment of such superannuation fund, the said fund shall be applied according to the regulations of the said Board, first in payment of the costs, charges, and expenses, to be incurred as well by the said Board as otherwise, in carrying out the provisions of this Act or in the management of the said fund or in any way incident thereto; and secondly in payment of such superannuation allowance to the officers employed in the several offices mentioned in such order as are hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, to an officer or person who upon his retirement from the office shall have served, whether before or after the passing of the Act of the 4th & 5th of Wm. IV., cap. 76, for a period of 15 years and upwards and under 20 years, an annual allowance amounting to one-third of the annual salary of his office; and for a period of 20 years and upwards, and under 30 years, an annual allowance of one-half of such salary; and for a period of 30 years and upwards, an annual allowance of two-thirds of such salary. Rates of Superannuation Allowances.

VI. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted that no superannuation allowance shall be granted under this Act to any officer who shall be under 55 years of age, nor to any officer who shall not have had abatements made from his salary under the provisions of this Act for the period of fifteen years, unless upon a certificate in writing of two medical practitioners, one of whom shall be the medical officer of the parish or union to which such officer shall be attached or belong, that he is wholly incapable from some infirmity of mind or body, not caused by his own misconduct, to discharge the duties of his office, on receipt of which certificate in respect of any such officer above the age of 55 years who shall not have had deductions made from his salary for the said space of fifteen years, it shall be competent for Conditions on which allowances are to be granted as to age and infirmity.

the Poor Law Board at their discretion to authorize a payment to him of a superannuation allowance of one-third part only of his annual salary.

VII. And be it enacted that the superannuation allowance to be granted to any officer shall be computed upon the average annual amount of the salary received by him during the seven years next preceding the time of his resignation, and in case he shall not have received his salary for that period, such superannuation allowance shall be calculated upon the average annual amount of the salary received by him during the whole period of service.

VIII. And be it enacted that the allowances shall only be payable in respect of complete quarters of a year, and shall commence at some one of the customary quarter days in the year, and shall end at the last quarter day which shall occur previous to the decease of the officer who shall have been in the receipt thereof, and where the payment due at the decease of such officer shall be under the sum of twenty pounds, or where the officer entitled to the allowance shall be through mental or bodily infirmity incapable of giving a receipt or discharge for the same, the Poor Law Board shall determine to what person the payment shall be made, and the receipt of such person shall be a sufficient discharge for every payment so made.

IX. And be it further enacted that any officer holding any office named in the said first order of the said Poor Law Board or in any addition thereto, may at any time contribute to the said fund in respect of any number of years of service rendered previously to the establishment of the said fund in any office named in the said orders, an amount equal to the sum which would have been abated from his salary, in case the said superannuation fund had been in existence, and such number of years shall be computed and taken into consideration in ascertaining the claim of any such officer for a superannuation allowance.

X. And be it further enacted that if any officer or person holding any office mentioned in the said order or in the addition thereto, shall resign his office and shall afterwards be appointed to the same or any other office named therein, the aggregate number of years of service rendered in all such offices shall be computed and taken into consideration in ascertaining the claim for a superannuation allowance.

XI. And be it enacted that in case any person in the receipt of a superannuation allowance shall be appointed to any paid office in connection with the administration of the laws for the relief of the poor, every such allowance shall cease so long as such subsequent appointment shall be held.

XII. And be it enacted that in case the superannuation fund shall become so reduced as to render it in the judgment of the Poor Law Board unsafe to continue the payments in full, the respective payments to all parties entitled to superannuation allowance from the said fund shall be reduced in such manner and proportion as the said Board shall find necessary during such time as the said fund shall in the opinion of the said Board be insufficient to pay the whole of the superannuation allowances chargeable thereon in full, but the amount of such reductions shall nevertheless be a charge on the said fund, payable whenever afterwards the said fund shall be deemed by the said Board capable of paying the total amount thereof to all the parties whose allowances shall have been so reduced.

XIII. And "whereas the above scheme has been proposed on behalf of the officers concerned therein upon representations after careful calculation that the same can effect the object proposed, but experience may prove that the same is insufficient, and the public ought not to be rendered responsible in case of any failure thereof," be it therefore enacted that neither the Poor Law Board nor any officer or clerk employed by such Board in the collection, management, or distribution of such fund shall be held in any way accountable or be liable to any suit in law or equity on the ground of the deficiency or failure in the fund hereafter to be raised by reason whereof no allowance can be paid, or one of a less amount than is here pro-

Provided that nothing herein contained shall be taken to exempt any such officer or clerk so employed as aforesaid from the consequences of his own fraud, embezzlement, or wilful neglect or misappropriation of any monies or securities belonging to the said fund, which may at any time come into his possession by virtue of such employment.

XIV. And be it enacted that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to prevent the removal of any paid officer, and every such officer who shall be removed by the said Poor Law Board, or shall resign upon any charge of misconduct or neglect of duty made against him, shall thereupon forfeit all claim upon the said superannuation fund, unless the said Poor Law Board shall make any order to the contrary.

Officers dismissed, &c., to forfeit all claim.

XV. And be it further enacted that in the construction of this Act, the word "Parish" shall be construed to include any parish, city, borough, town, township, liberty, precinct, vill, village, hamlet, tithing, chapelry, or any other place or division, or district of a place maintaining its own poor, whether parochial or extra-parochial,—the word "Union" shall be construed to include any number of parishes united under the provisions of any Act, whether general or local, relating to the relief or maintenance of the poor, and wherever in this Act in describing any person or party, matter or thing the word importing the singular number or masculine gender only is used, the same shall be understood to include and shall be applied to several persons or parties, as well as one person or party, and females as well as males, and several matters and things as well as one matter or thing respectively, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction,

No. 5.

CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to BOARDS of GUARDIANS on the distribution of the Parliamentary Grant in aid of the Salaries of Teachers in Workhouse Schools.

*Poor Law Board, Somerset House,
6th May, 1850.*

SIR,

THE POOR LAW BOARD, by a Circular dated the 31st March, 1848, communicated to the Guardians of the several Unions, the plan on which the Parliamentary Grant for the Salaries of Teachers in Workhouse Schools would be distributed during the year commencing at Lady-day, 1849.

The experience which has been since obtained of the working of that plan, has led to the conclusion that some modification of it is necessary. During the past year, the amount payable in respect of the teacher's salary was fixed in each case without reference to the number of scholars in the school, which sometimes resulted in the anomaly, that the highest rate of allowance was granted in respect of teachers having charge of a very small number of scholars, because such teachers held high class certificates. It is, however, obviously desirable that the number of scholars under the teacher's care, as well as his general acquirements and efficiency, should be considered in determining the amount to be allowed to the Guardians from the Parliamentary Grant on account of his salary.

It has accordingly been determined by this Board, in conjunction with the Committee of Council on Education, that the payments from the Grant during the current year, shall be made according to the following plan:—

Schoolmasters holding certificates of efficiency, to receive from the Grant the sum of 30*l.* a year, together with 5*s.* for each child in the school, up to the maximum payment of 60*l.*, where the certificate is No. 1; 55*l.* where it is No. 2; and 50*l.* where it is No. 3. The number of children to be reckoned in every case on the average number in the school during the twelve months preceding the examination by the Inspector of Schools.

Schoolmasters holding certificates of competency, to receive the sum of 25*l.*, together with 4*s.* for each of the average number of children in the school, up to the maximum payment of 45*l.* where the certificate is No. 1; 40*l.* where it is No. 2; and 35*l.* where it is No. 3.

Schoolmasters holding certificates of probation, to receive the sum of 20*l.*, together with 3*s.* for each of the average number of children in the school, up to the maximum payment of 30*l.* where the certificate is No. 1; 25*l.* where it is No. 2; where it is No. 3 the salary remains at 20*l.*

Schoolmasters holding certificates of permission, No. 1 to receive the sum of 15*l.* a year; No. 2, 10*l.* a year; and No. 3, 5*l.* a year. Teachers holding certificates of this class will not be entitled to any addition from the Grant on account of the number of scholars under their care.

The payments from the Grant to schoolmistresses will be in the proportion of four-fifths of those allowed to schoolmasters holding corresponding certificates of qualification.

The following Table will more clearly show the payments which will be made under this arrangement to the several classes of masters and mistresses :—

PAYMENT FROM PARLIAMENTARY GRANT.
CERTIFICATE.	Fee for each Scholar, regulating Salary between the minimum and maximum.	Masters.		Mistresses.
		Minimum Salary.	Maximum Salary.	Minimum Salary.	Maximum Salary.
Efficiency . . . 1 } 2 } 3 }	5s.	£. 30	£. 60 55 50 }	£. 24	£. 48 44 40
Competency . . . 1 } 2 } 3 }	4s.	25	45 40 35 }	20	36 32 28
Probation . . . 1 } 2 } 3 }	3s.	20	30 25 20 }	16	24 20 16
Permission . . . 1 } 2 } 3 }	0	15 10 5	15 10 5	12 8 4	12 8 4

The sums to be paid out of the Parliamentary Grant on account of the salaries of schoolmasters and schoolmistresses, will in general be regulated according to the table above given, but instances will probably arise, in which it may be deemed proper to assign a lower payment than that indicated in the Table—as in the case of a very youthful teacher, who has only just entered upon his charge; or a higher allowance—as in the case of a teacher of great merit having charge of an extraordinary number of children.

As the amount of the fees will be regulated by the average number of children in the school during the year, an accurate record of the daily attendance in the school must be kept, and the Guardians are requested to give the necessary directions for effecting this object.

In a few instances the teachers do not reside in the workhouse, and are not provided with rations, and it is therefore necessary to state that the sums set forth in the above table are to be paid to the teachers in addition to residence and rations, and that where these are not provided the Guardians will be required to allow the teacher the sum of 15*l.* a year in lieu thereof, in order to entitle them to receive from the Parliamentary Grant the sum specified in the certificate.

It is necessary further to observe, that until the salaries of the teachers shall in every instance be identical with the sums specified in the certificates, the salary heretofore paid, where it is less than the amount specified in the certificate should be increased to that sum, the whole of which will be repaid to the Guardians out of the Parliamentary

Grant. Where the amount specified in the certificate is less than the salary heretofore paid, the stipulated salary should continue to be paid, notwithstanding the certificate, until the Board's sanction be obtained for its reduction. In this latter case the difference between the sum specified in the certificate and the stipulated salary, must be defrayed out of the union funds, as only the amount specified in the certificate will be repaid out of the Grant.

By order of the Board,

G. NICHOLLS, Secretary.

The Clerk to the Board of Guardians.

No. 6.

CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to Boards of Guardians as to the mode of recording the attendance of children in Workhouse Schools.

Poor Law Board, 12th July, 1850.

SIR,

THE POOR LAW BOARD wish to call the Guardians' attention to the following passage in a Circular dated the 6th May last, on the subject of the payments from the Parliamentary Grant on account of the salaries of teachers in workhouse schools:—"As the amount of the fees will be regulated by the average number of children in the school during the year, an accurate record of the daily attendance in the school must be kept, and the Guardians are requested to give the necessary directions for effecting this object."

It appears desirable that the mode of recording the attendance of the scholars should be the same in all workhouse schools, and the Board therefore request, that the Guardians will provide two books for each of the teachers, prepared according to the accompanying Forms, which have been suggested by the Committee of Council on Education, and appear well adapted for the purpose. In one of the books the dates of admission and discharge of every scholar, with some other particulars, are to be recorded; and in the other the daily attendance or absence of each scholar is to be noted.

The headings of the several columns in the "School Admission and Discharge Book" sufficiently show how it is to be kept; and with respect to the "School Attendance Book," it is only necessary to state that the space for each day of the week should be divided by a diagonal line for morning and afternoon school; a dot (.) should be inserted in each division, when the child has been in school morning and afternoon; "a" to denote his absence; "w" his being at work by order of the master; and "s" his being sick. The form now sent is filled up as a specimen of these several entries.

This record will not only enable the School Inspector, when visiting the school, to see how long each child has been under instruction, but will also enable him readily to ascertain the average number of scholars in attendance during the year.

The Board request the Guardians to direct the teachers to make the necessary entries in these books daily, and to produce the same at every meeting of the Guardians for their inspection, when the books are to be signed by the presiding chairman.

By order of the Board,
E. BRINGTON, Secretary.

To

The Clerk to the Board of Guardians.

No. 7.

CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to BOARDS of GUARDIANS, on the Acts of 13 and 14 Vict. cc. 11, 50, 53, 57, 99, and 101.

*Poor Law Board, Somerset House,
7th November, 1850.*

SIR,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to lay before the Guardians the substance of the statutes passed in the late Session of Parliament, which refer to the general administration of the relief of the poor, the duties of the Guardians, and the management of certain parochial affairs.

These statutes are the 13th and 14th Vict. c. 11, c. 50, c. 53, c. 57, c. 99, and c. 101. It will be most convenient to consider c. 11 and c. 101, in the first place.

The 13 and 14 Vict. c. 11, contains a provision to meet an inconvenience which had arisen in determining the proper averages in school districts, according to which the respective Unions and parishes combined therein are to contribute to the common charges of such district. By the 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101, s. 47, a mode of contribution was prescribed which refers to the last declared averages of the several Unions combined. But as these averages may have been declared at different dates, it is obvious that the reference to such declarations may operate unfairly. In the case where a parish is combined with Unions whose averages have been declared in different years, the mode wholly fails. The present statute, therefore, provides a different rule of calculation, and enables the Poor Law Board to ascertain the average annual expenditure on account of the relief of the poor in every Union or parish forming an integral part of the district, up to the same day, and to issue their order to declare the average so ascertained. The averages which shall be declared under this provision are made applicable to all accounts not closed and audited at the time when the Act passed, which was on the 17th of May, 1850.

The Poor Law Board are also empowered, from time to time, when it shall seem requisite, to declare fresh averages, to be ascertained in the same manner.

The 13 & 14 Vict., c. 101, contains various provisions which affect the Guardians.

Section 1 continues the statutes 11 & 12 Vict. c. 110, and 12 & 13 Vict. c. 103, so as to render the common fund of each Union liable to the charge of the relief of the irremovable poor and destitute wayfarers and wanderers for another year, that is, until the 30th day of September, 1851, and to the end of the then next Session of Parliament. The provisions of these statutes in this respect are extended to the present incorporated Hundreds of Norfolk and Suffolk.

To obviate, to some extent, the inconvenience which has been felt in many Unions in regard to the burial of paupers who die in the workhouse, in consequence of the over-crowding of the burial-ground of the parish wherein it is situated, the Guardians are now authorized by section 2 of the statute to contribute out of their funds such sum of money as the Poor Law Board shall approve, either towards the enlargement of any church-yard or consecrated public burial ground, in the parish where the workhouse is situate, or in any other parish in the Union, or towards the procuring one in any parish in the Union. Where any burial ground shall have been enlarged or obtained with the aid of such contribution, the Guardians may bury the dead body of any pauper dying in the workhouse in such burial ground, provided, however, that the request of the deceased, or his wife, or next of kin, as to the burial taking place elsewhere, be duly regarded. It is also provided, that the fees payable by the custom of the parish in cases of burial, shall be paid by the Guardians where they so direct the burial.

The 3rd section applies to school districts, though its operation is confined to the metropolis and its neighbourhood. It has been found in those districts which have been formed in or near the metropolis, that owing to the great value of property, the limit of expenditure in the procuring and erecting of the school, imposed by the 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101, s. 44, has caused some difficulty to the Boards of Management. Accordingly this clause enacts, that in addition to the sum which may be raised or borrowed under the former Act, for the purpose of providing a building, each Board of Management may raise or borrow such further sum or sums as may be necessary to purchase land as a site for the school, or for the training of the children maintained there, or for the site of any addition to the school.

Section 4 enables Boards of Guardians to expend money in and about the emigration of poor children under the age of 16, being orphans or deserted, who have no settlements, or whose settlements are unknown, and to charge the cost to the parish to which they are chargeable, or to the common fund, if they be chargeable thereto. In the former case, the consent of the Guardians of the parish to the expenditure will be necessary, and the conditions required in other emigration must be duly attended to in each.

It will be seen that the Legislature have thought it right to require that special protection should be afforded to persons of these tender years, who are deprived of their natural guardians; and it is therefore provided that the emigration of no orphan or deserted child shall take place, under any of the provisions applicable to this subject, until such child shall have consented thereto before the justices at their petty sessions, and a certificate of such consent under the hands of two justices shall have been transmitted to the Poor Law Board. This emigration cannot take place at the cost of the poor-rate, without the order of the Poor Law Board sanctioning and authorizing such emigration, being first obtained: and the Board take this opportunity of reminding the Guardians, and requesting them to make known the same to their officers, and, as far as possible, to the Overseers of the parishes in the Union, that in no case can the emigration of poor persons, whether in the receipt of relief or not, be conducted by them unless the order of this Board precede it, nor unless the conditions prescribed by their order be strictly observed. The Board feel it necessary to impress this upon the Guardians and their officers, in consequence of so many cases having lately come under the notice of the Board in which, by reason of this legal provision having been neglected, auditors have been compelled to disallow money expended by Guardians or their officers in the emigration of poor persons.

The 5th section will enable the Guardians or Overseers to obtain an order of justices upon the husband of a lunatic woman confined in an asylum, for or towards the payment of the cost of her maintenance in the asylum.

The inconvenience resulting from the master of the workhouse, or relieving officer, being appointed to fill some parochial office, is removed by the 6th section, which it will be seen disqualifies each of them for holding the office of overseer, constable, or other parochial office, though it enables the relieving officer, with the authority of the Poor Law Board, to hold a paid office in a parish.

The 7th section authorizes the fee or remuneration settled by the justices in quarter sessions for giving notice of the special sessions for hearing appeals, under the 6 & 7 W. 4, c. 96, to be paid by the Overseers out of the poor-rate. By this express provision for the case, a question, which has created much dissatisfaction, is settled.

The Guardians are aware of the provisions of the 55 Geo. 3, c. 137, s. 2, and the 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101, s. 58, relating to the punishment of persons deserting from the workhouse, and carrying with them clothes or other goods, being the property of the Union or parish, whereby upon conviction they may be sentenced to imprisonment for a limited period. The 8th section of the present statute empowers the justices to adjudge any such person to be kept to hard labour. The 9th section subjects persons assaulting the officers of the workhouse, or the relieving officers in the discharge of their duty, to the same punishment as in the case of assaults upon peace officers, and gives power to the justices to make the like order as to the costs and expenses of the prosecution.

The 10th section, which is the last practical enactment, applies to the collection of county, borough, or police rates in parishes which are situated partly within and partly without boroughs, and authorizes the employment of the ordinary collector in the parish to collect such rates, provides for his payment, and gives some additional powers for the collection of those rates.

Adverting now to the other statutes, it is necessary to observe that by the 13 & 14 Vict. c. 50, the Act (3 & 4 Vict. c. 89), which exempts the inhabitants of parishes from liability to be rated as such to the relief of the poor in respect of stock in trade and other property, is continued till the 1st October, 1851, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament.

The 13 & 14 Vict. c. 53 is the Act which provides for the taking of the census in next year. It contains various regulations for the appointment of the enumerators and the collection of the accounts of the numbers of persons, which do not affect the Guardians. It is, however, provided, that the allowances to the officers employed in the discharge of the duties required of them, shall be paid, in the first instance, by the Guardians of Unions and parishes, or by the Overseers of parishes not under Boards of Guardians, who will afterwards be reimbursed by the Treasury.

The day appointed for the numbering of the population of the kingdom is the 31st of March, and the Guardians and Overseers will not be called upon to make any payment until the following months. In the mean time some arrangements will probably be entered into as to the mode by which the repayment to the Guardians shall be effected, and the Board may have occasion to address the Guardians hereafter upon the subject.

The two other statutes to be noticed do not indeed relate directly to the Guardians, but they contain provisions of great importance, to which it is desirable the attention of the Guardians should be directed, and the knowledge of which should be circulated by them among the parishes within their Union, as far as their opportunities will permit.

The first is the 13 & 14 Vict. c. 57, which enables any parish, the population of which exceeds 2,000, to procure a proper place in which its vestry meetings may be held, instead of the church or vestry room where they are now held, and also to appoint a vestry clerk as a permanent officer, to perform in that capacity the business of the parish, and to pay him a salary out of the poor-rate. The Guardians will, doubtless, remember the difficulties which have often been felt in respect of both these matters. No public fund existed out of which a vestry room could be provided, and no legal authority for charging the salary or other remuneration of a vestry clerk upon the poor-rate or other parochial rate.

The statute now referred to enables the Poor Law Board, upon the application of the churchwardens, made pursuant to a resolution of the vestry of a parish, whose population exceeds 2,000, to order either a portion or the whole of that Act to be put in force within it. If the order of the Board apply to the former of these objects, then after the order has been issued twelve months, (so that the parish shall have had time to provide another vestry room,) the holding of a vestry meeting in the church of the parish, and except under particular circumstances in the vestry room attached to it, is declared to be illegal. Authority is given to the parish officers to procure the necessary accommodation, and with the order of the Poor Law Board, and the sanction of the vestry, to borrow money to pay the cost of the erection of the building, to be repaid by annual instalments not exceeding ten.

The statute also enables the parish to apply to the Poor Law Board for an order to appoint a vestry clerk, whose salary and the security to be given by him, when required, are to be settled by the Poor Law Board. When the order for this purpose has been issued, the vestry are to elect the person to fill the office, which he will continue to hold until he resigns, or until the vestry (with the consent of the Poor Law Board), or the Poor Law Board at their own discretion, shall remove him. So long, therefore, as the parish requires the services of such an officer and he conducts himself well, his tenure of office will be secure. The statute contains a full enumeration of the duties to be performed by this officer, though it will be competent for the parish to dispense with some of them, and for the Poor Law Board to add others.

A legal provision having thus been made for the appointment of an officer (whose utility in many populous parishes cannot be denied), the Board recommend the Guardians to use their endeavours to have the irregular appointments, which have for a long time prevailed in many places, determined, and legal and valid appointments made in their place. The Board desire to inform the Guardians that they have deemed it right to direct the attention of the district auditor to this part of the statute, with the object of enforcing this last observation.

The other Act, 13 & 14 Vict. c. 99, relates to the subject of the poor-rate. It deals with the important subject of the rating small tenements, which has been frequently brought under the attention of all parties engaged in administration of the laws for the relief of the poor. The difficulties of collecting the parochial rates from the actual occupants of such property have long been felt and acknowledged. The 59 Geo. 3, c. 12, s. 19, as the Guardians are aware, provided for rating the owners of a certain class of small tenements,—namely, those, the yearly rent of which was between 6*l.* and 20*l.* The present Act enables the vestry, if they think proper to do so, to assess the owners instead of the occupiers of all tenements in a parish the annual value of which does not exceed 6*l.* The adoption of the Act, however, is entirely optional with the vestry.

If the vestry in any parish, after due notice, agree to assess the owners of such property instead of the occupiers, and make an order accordingly, then the former are to be thenceforth assessed to the poor and highway rates so long as the order of the vestry shall remain in force. A power is, however, given to a majority of two-thirds at least of a meeting of the vestry to rescind the order after it has been in force for three years. The assessment upon the owner is to be upon a reduced scale, inasmuch as he is to be assessed upon three-fourths of the annual value of the property; but a provision is contained in the Act which will enable the owner of any particular property to make, within 14 days after Lady-day, a composition for a year in respect of the premises, whether they may be occupied or not, under which composition he may have a deduction made not exceeding one half. The like remedy is given for the recovery of the rate from the owner as exists against the occupier in ordinary cases, and the latter will be held responsible for the rate if the owner makes default. At the same time it is to be observed that the statute enables the occupier to recover from his landlord the amount of the rate paid by the former, for which the latter is rendered liable by this statute.

If the owner be assessed he may appeal against the rate, and he will have the same right of voting in the vestry as the occupier of the tenement would have had, had the rate been imposed on him.

The statute contains some other provisions which need not be specified in this letter.

The Board, have reason to believe from the information which they received, that the Act has already been received with approbation in the country, and is in the course of being adopted in numerous parishes.

The Guardians will, doubtless, perceive that the Act will have an important effect with reference to the cases which constantly come under their notice, of the application of poor persons to be excused from the payment of their rates on the ground of poverty. Where, in any parish, such applications are numerous, the proper remedy will be afforded by this statute. The indiscriminate excusal of long lists of poor persons from the payment of rates has generally had a demoralizing effect upon the poorer classes, by habituating them to the receipt of relief, granted, in the first place, under the equivocal form of exemption from a payment which, by law, they ought to make.

The Board, in conclusion, have to state that it will probably be found necessary that the Poor Law Commissioners' General Order of Accounts, which prescribes the form in which the poor-rate is to be drawn up, should be modified to meet the provisions of this statute. The Board, therefore, have this matter at present under their consideration.

No. 8.

CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to OVERSEERS, on the RATING of OWNERS, 13 & 14 Vict. c. 99.

*Poor Law Board, London,
20th November, 1850.*

GENTLEMEN,

THE Poor Law Board having received numerous communications on the subject of the Form of Poor Rate to be used by the Overseers of Parishes, the vestries of which resolve to act upon the provisions of the statute, 13 & 14 Vict. c. 99, for assessing the owners of certain tenements to the poor-rate instead of the occupiers thereof, have deemed it advisable to make an alteration in the General Order of Accounts issued by the Poor Law Commissioners in March, 1847, so far as it relates to the rate-book.

It appeared to the Board that it would be most desirable to make as little alteration as possible in the form prescribed by that Order, and that the introduction of one additional column would suffice for the present purpose: they have accordingly made a provision to that effect in the General Order, a copy of which accompanies this letter.

In this additional column (No. 12), the Overseers of any parish in which the owners are liable to be assessed under the above or any other Statute, must enter the sums which the owners are called upon to pay (whether upon any composition or otherwise), which sums will be calculated according to the scale of liability, established by the Act under which the owners are assessed. With reference to this point it must be remembered that, besides the Statute already mentioned, the 59 Geo. III. c. 12, s. 19, contains a provision to a like effect, in reference to a different class of tenements, and that local Acts are in force in many parishes, whereby the liability to be assessed to the poor-rate is transferred from the occupier to the owner.

The form of rate as now prescribed will be applicable to all those cases.

As it will probably be inconvenient that the publishers of these forms should keep up a stock of two forms of rate-book, and as it may be expedient for parishes to be possessed of books in which can be entered at any time the assessments upon the owners, instead of the occupiers, whenever the vestry of any parish shall determine to adopt the provisions of the Act 13 & 14 Vict. c. 99, the Board have deemed it advisable to authorize the use of this new form of rate-book by the overseers in every parish whether the owners may or may not be liable to be assessed to the poor-rate. The Overseers in making out the poor-rate in this form must, however, be careful not to make any entry in the column No. 12 against the owners, until they shall have been rendered liable to be assessed to the rate by due legal provision.

It has been suggested that the names of the owners who are liable to be assessed, instead of the occupiers, should be all entered together in a distinct part of the rate; but the Board are not prepared to issue any express directions or rule on the subject. It may, however, be found generally convenient that, where an owner is assessed, either under a composition or otherwise in respect of several contiguous tenements, the assessment of such tenements should be entered together or in immediate succession in the rate-book. The Board must leave this matter, however, which is entirely one of convenience, to the descretion of the Overseers, or other officers who are charged with the duty of making out the rate.

The Board will remind the Overseers that in parishes where the owners are to be rated instead of the occupiers, the only alterations in the mode of entering the particulars in the rate-book will occur in the column No. 11, for the rate on the occupier, and in the additional column (No. 12) for the rate on the owner. Where the owner is to be rated instead of the occupier, the column (No. 11) for the amount otherwise chargeable upon the occupier should, in that particular case, be left blank, and the next column (No. 12) filled up with the amount payable by the owner, which amount must be calculated upon three-fourths, or such other proportion as shall be applicable to his case, of the amount of the rateable value set out in the column No. 10. This rateable value must be the full net annual value of the property estimated as if the occupier were the person to be assessed.

Assuming that the Overseers have carefully omitted to insert in column No. 11 any sums in respect of the property for which the owners are to be assessed, and have entered the sums properly chargeable upon such owners in column No. 12, they must then add together the totals of the two columns (11 and 12) in order to enable them to make the declaration at the foot of the rate as to the amount of the whole rate.

The Board have requested Mr. Charles Knight, their publisher, to prepare rate-books in the form now prescribed; and they understand that the same will be ready for sale forthwith. The Board think it right, however, to state that it will be open to any other publisher to publish these books.

27th November, 1850.*

GENTLEMEN,

IT has been represented to the Poor Law Board that some misapprehension may possibly arise in reference to their Circular of the 20th inst., as to the cases in which it will be necessary to use rate-books in the form prescribed by the General Order which accompanied that circular; and I am therefore directed to state that it will be necessary to use rate-books in that form, only in those parishes, in which there may be an order of the Vestry to assess the owners of tenements to the poor-rate instead of the occupiers, under the provisions of the 13 & 14 Vic. c. 99, or some other enactment. In all other parishes, the rate-books in the form prescribed by the Poor Law Commissioners in their order of the 17th of March, 1847, may continue to be used.

The Poor Law Amendment Act received the Royal Assent on the 14th August, 1834.

The expenditure for the relief of the poor was at the minimum in this year.

The amount includes the sum of £57,111, the expense incurred under the Act for taking the Census of 1841.

Until the year 1839, the expense incurred in removal of paupers and travelling expenses of overseers, was included under the head of "Law Charges;" in that and subsequent years, it has been entered under the head of "Relief."

Expenditure on the Poor is included in previous column, with "County and Borough Rate."

REPORT.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

*Poor Law Board, Somerset House,
December 31, 1851.*

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,

We, the Poor Law Board, beg leave to lay before Your Majesty the following Report of our proceedings during the year 1851:—

The expenditure for the relief of the poor in England and Wales, during the year ended at Lady-day 1851, as shown by the "Poor Rate Return" for that year, amounted to 4,962,704*l.*, being a decrease of 432,318*l.*, or 8 per cent., as compared with the expenditure of the preceding year. The sum expended in the year ended at Lady-day 1851 amounted to 5*s.* 6½*d.* per head on the population, and in the preceding year to 6*s.* 1*d.*, being a decrease of 6½*d.* per head.

Expenditure for Relief.

These particulars may be more conveniently exhibited by the following Table:—

Years ended Lady-day.	Expended for Relief of the Poor in England and Wales.	Decrease in 1851, as compared with 1850.	Decrease per Cent.	Rate per Head on Population.	Decrease per Head in 1851, as compared with 1850.

1851	4,962,704			5 6½

The Poor Rate Return inserted in the Appendix to this Report (pages 42 to 82) sets forth the expenditure, the total of which is shown in the above Table, more in detail. That document shows the amount expended for "in-maintenance" (column 1.) "out-relief" (column 2.), and "other purposes immediately connected with relief" (column 3.), in every union, and in every parish not in a union, in England and Wales. The summary of the Poor Rate Return, also in the Appendix (page 38), exhibits similar particulars in regard to every county in England and Wales. The "other purposes immediately connected with relief" comprehend the salaries of all Poor Law officers (assistant overseers and collectors excepted), the repayment of money borrowed for building and altering workhouses, the costs incurred for emigration purposes, for the maintenance of lunatics in asylums, for extra medical relief and fees, and for the burial of paupers.

In one of the English counties and one of the Welsh a small increase has taken place in the expenditure of 1851, as compared with that of 1850 ; but in all the other counties there has been a decrease. The rates per cent. of the increase and decrease in the several counties are as follow :—

It is satisfactory to find that the total expenditure for the relief of the poor is lower in 1851 than it has been in any year since 1842, with the exception of one year, the year 1846 ; and that the expenditure per head on the population is lower in 1851 than it has been in any year since 1834, with the exception of the years 1837 and 1838.

The total expenditure for the relief of the poor in 1834 was 6,317,255*l.*, and in 1851, as already stated, 4,962,704*l.*, being a decrease of 1,354,551*l.* The expenditure per head on the population in 1834 was 8*s.* 9½*d.*, and in 1851, 5*s.* 6½*d.*, being a decrease of 3*s.* 3*d.* per head. Had the population of 1834 been the same as that of 1851, the expenditure for 1834, at the rate of 8*s.* 9½*d.* per head, would have amounted to 7,878,550*l.*, and the decrease in 1851, as compared with 1834, would have appeared to be no less a sum than 2,915,846*l.*

With regard to the expenditure for relief only, we are in possession of returns up to Michaelmas 1851, so far as the unions and single parishes under boards of guardians are concerned. The result of these returns, together with a comparison of the expenditure of 1851 with that of 1850, is set forth in the following Table :

Number of Unions.	Years.	Expended for In-Maintenance and Out-door Relief.
		In-Maintenance.	Out-door Relief.	Total.
607	Year ended at Michaelmas 1850	£ 691,666	£ 2,778,191	£ 3,469,857
	Year ended at Michaelmas 1851	642,246	2,646,944	3,289,190
Decrease in the year ended Michaelmas 1851 . . . . .		49,420	131,247	180,667 or 5·2 per Cent.

It will thus be observed that the cost of relief has decreased during the latest period for which returns have been received.

The state of Pauperism is indicated by returns made to the Board by the several unions and single parishes under boards of guardians of the number of persons in receipt of relief on the 1st of January and the 1st of July in each year. Number of Paupers Relieved.

The following Tables contain summaries of the number of persons, of all classes, in receipt of relief on the 1st of January 1851 and the 1st of July 1851 respectively ; and also the number in receipt of relief on the corresponding days in 1850 :—

* Returns have been received, during the progress of printing this Report, of the number of persons in receipt of relief in 607 Unions and Single Parishes, under Boards of Guardians, in England and Wales, on the 1st January 1852. Summaries of these returns are inserted in the Appendix (pages 102-5 and 110).

The following comparison of the number in receipt of relief (in-door and out-door) on the 1st January 1852, with the number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1851, exhibits a progressive decrease:—

As respects paupers of all classes,—

The number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1851 - 862,827
The number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1852 - 835,360

Decrease - - - - 27,467 or 3·2 per cent.

As respects adult able-bodied paupers,—

The number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1851 - 154,553
The number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1852 - 137,318

Decrease - - - - 17,235 or 11·2 per cent.

In three of the English counties and in five of the Welsh, there appears to have been an increase in the number of the adult able-bodied paupers in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1852, as compared with the number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1851; but in all the other counties there was a decrease. The rate per cent. of the increase and decrease in the several counties is as follows:—

Emigration.

The number of poor persons who have received assistance from the poor rates to emigrate during the year is 1,840. The number who received such assistance in the preceding year was 1,962. There has therefore been a decrease of 122 in the number of pauper emigrants in 1851 as compared with 1850.

An analysis of the statement in the Appendix, p. 130, shows the number of emigrants sent out from each county to be as follows :

Bedford . . . .	44	Middlesex . . . .	129
Berks . . . .	21	Norfolk . . . .	110
Bucks . . . .	98	Northampton . . . .	35
Cambridge . . . .	89	Nottingham . . . .	38

Hertford . . . .	48	Surrey . . . .	25
Huntingdon . . . .	36	Sussex . . . .	66
Kent . . . .	91	Warwick . . . .	28
Lancaster . . . .	4	Wilts . . . .	97
Leicester . . . .	31	York . . . .	11
Lincoln . . . .	81	Brecknock . . . .	10

The destination of these emigrants appears thus :—

Canada . . . . .	745
New Brunswick . . . . .	31
Port Natal . . . . .	2
Australian Colonies . . . . .	963
New Zealand . . . . .	99

Classifying the emigrants according to their sexes and ages, it will be found that there were of—

Males :—Adult persons above 14 years of age . . . .	658
Children between 7 and 14 years of age . . . .	193
Children under 7 years of age . . . .	213
Females :—Adult persons above 14 years of age . . . .	413
Children between 7 and 14 years of age . . . .	180
Children under 7 years of age . . . .	183

The fact that a majority of the emigrants have proceeded to the Australian colonies, notwithstanding their remoteness, must doubtless be attributed to the greater facilities which are afforded in the case of emigration to those colonies. The regulations issued by the Colonial and Land Emigration Commissioners in reference to emigration to Australia will be found in the Appendix, p. 32. It will be seen from these regulations that the following is the scale of payments required to be made by persons proceeding to Australia :

CLASSES.	AGE.
	Under 45.	45 and under 50.	50 and under 60.
I. Married agricultural labourers, shepherds, herdsmen, miners, and their wives; also female, domestic, and farm servants, per head . . .	£ 1	£ 5	£ 11
II. Single men of any of the above callings, and whether part of a family or not, each . . .	2	—	—
III. Country mechanics, such as blacksmiths, bricklayers, carpenters, masons, sawyers, wheelwrights, and gardeners, and their wives; also females of the working class, not being domestic or farm servants (when they can be taken), per head . .	5	8	15
IV. Children under 14, per head . . . . .	10s.	—	—

It is necessary to observe that persons in the “habitual receipt of parish relief” are not eligible as emigrants, under the Commissioners’ regulations.

We are not able to report that any further progress has been made during the year in the formation of school districts under the provisions of the Act of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101 ; or that the difficulties which have hitherto tended to restrict the operation of those provisions are likely soon to be overcome. But we have reason to believe that the district schools already established are realizing the expectations of the boards of guardians, as well as of the boards of managers, in regard to them. Workhouse schools generally continue steadily to increase in efficiency ; especially as respects the industrial training of the scholars,—a matter to which the attention of boards of guardians is becoming more and more directed. A communication lately received from our Inspector Sir John Walsham, supplies an illustration of this fact. He says, “cows and a dairy have been added to the workhouse establishments of the Guiltcross, Plomesgate, and Saffron Walden Unions, and will, I trust, be shortly added to that of the Mitford and Launditch Union, whose guardians have recently taken eight more acres into their hands.” He adds, “land for the boys, separate washhouses and laundries for the girls, with cows and a dairy, will I hope be sooner or later considered as essential to good workhouse management, as distinct dormitories and day-rooms, or as in-door lessons and household work."

Education of Pauper Children in the Metropolitan District.

A degree of progress, which is on the whole satisfactory, has been made in the Metropolitan District, in regard to the industrial education of pauper children.

The Central London District School maintains its high standard for efficiency, but it is felt by the managers that a system which does not include labour out of doors is necessarily imperfect; they are, therefore, at present endeavouring to obtain, in a convenient situation, a sufficient quantity of land to enable them to inure the children under their charge to agricultural employment.

The advantages, moral and economical, of the out-door employment of children, are satisfactorily exemplified in the North Surrey District School, where all the operations of farming and market gardening are carried on over forty acres of land, while the children are also taught and practised in various trades and handicrafts, as well as in every kind of household work, suited to their respective sexes, ages, and capacities. The number of children now in this school is 620. It received, a short time ago, a considerable accession from St. Mary Newington. In that parish, as we stated in our last Report, a new school had been built; but the guardians subsequently deemed it expedient to adapt the building, which had been prepared for the reception of the children, to the purposes of a workhouse for adults, and to place the children in the North Surrey District School. The provisions of the 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101. sec. 51. enabled them to make this arrangement with the Managers of the District School; and, as the Board of Managers were willing to contract with the Guardians of Newington for the maintenance and instruction of these children upon reasonable terms, we gave a ready consent to the arrangement, which appeared to us conducive to the best interests of all parties. With reference to the provisions of the same Act, we may observe that the children chargeable to the parish of St. Martin in the Fields are still, as they were at the date of our last Report, maintained, under an agreement with the managers, in the Central London District School.

There are indications in other parts of the Metropolitan District of recourse being had to the similar provisions of the Act of last session, 14 & 15 Vict. c. 105. sec. 6.

Another provision of the same Act of last session (14 & 15 Vict. c. 105. s. 16.) has, we trust, removed the financial difficulty which had prevented the managers of the South Metropolitan School District from advancing in the execution of their plan. By the section referred to, the limit of the outlay authorized by law for providing and fitting up a district school has been enlarged from one fifth of the previous annual expenditure of the several unions and parishes in the district to one third. Taking advantage of the relief afforded them by this relaxation, the managers have resumed their labours; they have matured and submitted to us an excellent design for school buildings, calculated for eleven hundred and fifty children; and we may now entertain a confident expectation that this most important undertaking will be carried forward with despatch to completion.

The schools for the children of the parishes of St. George in the East and St. James Westminster are nearly completed. To both these establishments sufficient land has been added to facilitate the combination of out-door with in-door labour, that is, of agricultural with mechanical training, in the education of the children.

It will thus be seen that the education of pauper children is advancing and improving in the Metropolitan District, and that the legislation of last session has materially promoted and facilitated that advance and improvement.

We have inserted in the Appendix (p. 115) a statement of the average number of children in the schools of the several workhouses in England and Wales, during the half-year ended at Lady-day last; and also of the amount paid to boards of guardians out of the Parliamentary grant in respect of the salaries of workhouse school teachers, for the year ended at the same period.

The following is a summary of this statement:—

We mentioned in our last Report that there remained only three Contractors' Establishments wherein paupers were maintained. We have now to state that one of these has been discontinued, by the removal of the children who were its inmates, and all chargeable to the parish of St. Mary Newington, to the North Surrey District School. The two remaining establishments are at Margate ; in one adults, in the other children, afflicted with scrofula and cutaneous diseases, are received ; and they are found beneficial as a sort of hospitals for poor persons so afflicted, who are sent to them from London.

The Erection and Alteration of Workhouses.

Adequate workhouse accommodation, with the means of properly classifying the inmates, is so essential to a sound administration of relief, that we regard with much satisfaction the providing of workhouses in unions which had none previously, or the erection of workhouses where the old ones were unsuitable, or the enlargement and improvement of existing workhouses, especially by providing infirmaries for the sick, and detached wards for those suffering under infectious diseases, and also separate places for the reception of vagrants. The Poor Law Board have no authority to issue an order directing the guardians of a union or parish to build or alter a workhouse, unless a majority of such guardians shall previously have given their consent to the work being undertaken. The responsibility rests therefore with the guardians to secure, with the sanction of the Poor Law Board, proper and necessary workhouse accommodation. Generally they are fully sensible of the importance of doing so ; but it is sometimes found that considerations of economy are allowed to interpose, and prevent an outlay in building which is really necessary for the well-working of the law and the health and comfort of the poor. Probably the guardians are not always aware that money may now be borrowed for this purpose from the Public Works Loan Board, and be repaid by annual instalments of one twentieth only of the principal, with interest at four per cent.

Orders under seal have been issued during the year for the erection of new workhouses in the unions of Bootle, Drayton, Ormskirk, Pocklington, and Wakefield ; in the incorporation of Kingston-upon-Hull ; and in the united parishes of St. Margaret and St. John the Evangelist, Westminster. Plans for workhouses in these several places, excepting Bootle, and also for workhouses in the Barnsley, Barton-upon-Irwell, Falmouth, Merthyr Tydfil, and Salford unions, together with the parish of Newington (Surrey), and the town of Plymouth, have been approved by the Board in the course of the year. The new workhouse at Pocklington, especially, will obviate the great inconveniences which have been experienced in the union from the want of sufficient accommodation for the in-door poor, leading to the objectionable practice of farming out the poor to a contractor. Plans have been approved also for extensive alterations in the workhouse of the township of Manchester; for infirmaries or infectious wards in the Billericay, Brentford, Gateshead, Holbeach, Houghton-le-Spring, Leighton Buzzard, Ongar, Wisbeach, and Crickhowell unions; and for vagrant wards in the East London and Kendal unions.

A Summary of the returns received from the several unions and parishes in England and Wales of the number vaccinated by the public vaccinators during the year ended at Michaelmas last is given in the Appendix, page 149. This summary shows the number of persons vaccinated during the present year to have been 349,091, being an increase upon the number vaccinated in the last year of 14,727. The summary also shows that the number of cases in which the vaccination has been successful is 338,947, which is an increase of 16,340 upon the number successfully vaccinated in 1850. Vaccinat

In the early part of the year we considered it advisable to effect a change in that part of the administration of the Poor Law which is connected with the audit of accounts. It was found from experience that the accounts themselves, as well as the manner in which they are audited, demanded more of the direct attention of the Board than was anticipated at the introduction of district auditors under the provisions of the 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101. We accordingly directed the auditors to report to us every material defect in the accounts submitted to them for examination; and we have thus been already enabled, in the case of a large number of offices held under the Poor Law, to require a proper conformity with the regulations of the General Order for Accounts, hitherto more or less neglected. We also determined upon instituting inquiries into the defalcations of assistant overseers, collectors, and other officers, in every case in which the defalcation might appear to have been facilitated by deranged accounts, to ascertain whether the state of the accounts was attributable to negligent auditing. Some inquiries of this description have already taken place, followed, in more than one instance, by the resignation of the auditor. Audit of
Account

Although by these means increased vigilance over both union and parochial accounts has been established, we think it probable that the system of audits may be still further improved; and our best attention will continue to be paid to the subject. Its importance may be estimated from the fact, that the poor's rates collected in England and Wales (including under that head the sums paid for county rates, borough rates, and various other purposes besides the relief of the poor, to which the poor rates are legally applicable,) amount to about 7,000,000*l.* annually. The paid officers engaged in collecting this sum exceed three thousand. The paid officers, through whose hands the greater part of it passes in its expenditure are nearly as numerous. Every one of these six thousand officers has a distinct account to render at the end of every half year; and as the money is collected in small payments (rates), and expended in still smaller items (relief), the accounts relate in each case to several hundreds and frequently thousands of petty sums. Besides these accounts, the auditors have to examine those of the unions, and of the overseers of parishes without assistant overseers or collectors, of which there are not fewer than ten thousand. To facilitate the examination of these accounts, it is required by the Board that they shall be regularly kept and rendered by the different classes of officers in forms adapted for that purpose. Were this not imperatively insisted upon, the accounts evidently would become too multifarious to allow of examination, unless divided amongst a very numerous body of auditors, whose services would require a remuneration far exceeding that necessary for the auditors capable of performing their duties under a uniform system of accounts.

Vestries Act,
13 & 14 Vict.
c. 57.

We have been called upon to issue orders under the Act of 13 & 14 Vict. c. 57. ("An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the Appointment of Vestry Clerks") to several important parishes in the course of the year. Orders for bringing all the provisions of the Act into operation have been issued to Croydon, Eastbourne, Holbeach, Kensington, Llanelly (Carmarthen), and March; for bringing into operation such of the provisions of the Act as relate to the appointment and duties of a vestry clerk, orders have been issued to Brampton, Chippenham, Cheshunt, Eccleshall Bierlow, Epping, Hesketh-in-the-Forest, Hillingdon, Kirkdale, Llanfair Caereinion, Llanasa, St. Margaret and St. John, Westminster, Mold, Mortlake, Nether Hallam, Portsmouth, Sedgley, Sherborne, Thames Ditton, Wandsworth, and Yardley; and for bringing into operation such of the provisions of the Act as relate to the providing of a vestry-room, orders have been issued to East Stonehouse, Manchester, and Rotherham, and another is on the point of being issued to Lambeth. It will thus be seen that the extent to which the Act has as yet been applied is rather limited; still it is probable that the inconveniences arising from the holding of vestry meetings in parish churches, or in rooms of inadequate accommodation, and the advantages which might be derived from the appointment of fit persons for the responsible office of vestry clerk, will ultimately lead many of the most populous parishes in England to avail themselves of the provisions of the Statute.

We find from returns recently made to the Board under an order of the House of Commons, that nearly 3,000 parishes in England and Wales had, up to the 25th March last, adopted the provisions of the Act of 13 & 14 Vict. c. 99. which gives the power of assessing to all poor rates and highway rates the owners instead of the occupiers of tenements the yearly rateable value of which does not exceed six pounds.

Rating of
Small Tenements,
13 & 14 Vict.
c. 99.

In the course of the last session of Parliament several Statutes were passed affecting the administration of the Poor Laws. Some of their provisions are of great importance.

*Amendment
of the Law.*
[14 & 15 Vict.
c. 11.]

A short Act (14 & 15 Vict. c. 11.) received the sanction of the Legislature very early in the session, intituled "An Act
" for the better Protection of Persons under the Care and " Control of others as Apprentices or Servants; and to " enable the Guardians and Overseers of the Poor to institute Prosecutions in certain Cases." Several cases of recent occurrence, including one or two of an extremely painful and disgusting character (we allude especially to those of the Birds and the Sloanes), had strongly illustrated the necessity of giving further protection to that class of young persons, comprising orphans, deserted children, and others of the most helpless and friendless of the community, who had been taken as apprentices or servants from work-houses. The same cases had also shown how imperfect and unsatisfactory was the obligation upon guardians to prosecute, even in the strongest case of cruelty or neglect on the part of the master, and how insufficient the provision made by law for the reimbursement to the guardians of any expenses which they might incur in such a prosecution. The new Statute, besides some provisions of a more general

—as respects
Apprentices
and Servants;

character, subjects offences of this description to more severe penalties, requires boards of guardians to provide for the regular visitation and inspection of young persons taken from workhouses as servants or apprentices, authorizes and requires the guardians to prosecute for offences committed with respect to such young persons, and provides for the reimbursement of all expenses which they may fairly and reasonably incur in the performance of these new duties. The Board have every reason to believe that these provisions will be found to be of a highly beneficial character, not only as affording greater protection to a class of poor persons for whom it was peculiarly wanted, but also as rendering the administration of the criminal law more prompt, certain, and effective in some of its most important proceedings. Soon after the passing of the Act, an Instructional Letter (which will be found in the Appendix to this Report<sup>1</sup>) was addressed by the Poor Law Board to every board of guardians in the country, for the purpose of giving them early and accurate information with regard to the new duties and powers created under it.

[14 & 15 Vict.
c. 105.]
—as respects
the Charge-ability of certain Classes:

Another Statute, 14 & 15 Vict. c. 105., besides continuing for another year the temporary provisions made by former Statutes, for the chargeability of certain classes of paupers to the common fund of the union, contains several enactments, wholly new, and, as we believe, of great practical importance. We shall refer in this Report to a very few of the principal of those enactments. A fuller exposition of the whole Act will be found in another Instructional Letter addressed by us in the course of the autumn to every board of guardians in England and Wales.<sup>2</sup>

—as respects
the Election of Guardians:

Our attention had been forcibly and repeatedly drawn to complaints of certain malpractices at the annual elections of guardians. In some parishes, where the animosities arising from general or local politics ran highest, attempts had been made to influence the election of guardians, by fabricating, altering, or purloining voting papers, by interrupting the distribution or collection of those papers, by personating voters, and by various other means of a similar character. There could be no doubt that every act of this description, when committed with the wilful and fraudulent purpose of affecting the result of the election, was liable to indictment and punishment as a misdemeanor, and in perfectly clear cases we have advised such prosecutions. But as a proceeding by indictment for a misdemeanor is often attended with great expense, delay, and uncertainty, it appeared highly desirable to provide some more speedy and summary mode of dealing with offences of this character. The new Statute (14 & 15 Vict. c. 105. sect. 3.) accordingly enacts, that every such offence, when committed wilfully, fraudulently, and with intent to affect the result of the election, may be punished, on conviction before two justices, by imprisonment for any period not exceeding three months, with or without hard labour. This provision, however, is merely cumulative, and does not take away or affect in any manner the power of proceeding by indictment, where that course may be more advisable.

The power of guardians to subscribe from the poor rates to the funds of an hospital or infirmary, especially where situated beyond the limits of the union, had frequently been questioned. It is obvious, however, that, in many cases of disease or accident, an institution of this kind presents advantages greater than can be secured for the poor in any other way, and which, by means of a moderate annual subscription to its funds, can be obtained for them in the most economical manner. The new Statute (sect. 4.) authorizes the guardians, with the consent of the Poor Law Board, to pay out of the poor rates such sum as they may think fit, by way of annual subscription, towards the support and maintenance of any public hospital or infirmary. From the communications which we have already received, we have reason to know that this is a power of which the boards of guardians are likely to avail themselves very generally and very usefully.

—as respects
the Power of Guardians to subscribe to the Funds of Hospitals,
&c.;

Another provision of the same Statute is calculated, as we believe, to effect a material improvement in the education of a large class of pauper children. In many union workhouses there are the means of accommodating and of instructing a much larger number of children than those belonging to the respective unions themselves. Others have a very insufficient provision in this respect; and in some few unions there are no workhouses, and consequently no workhouse schools. The law did not furnish any means (except in the case of a district school established under the 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101. sect. 43. 51.) by which pauper children could be sent out of their own union for the purposes of instruction, however advantageous to themselves such an arrangement might have been. The Statute of last session, however, (14 & 15 Vict. c. 105. s. 6.,) gives such a power, subject to certain checks and limitations analogous to those which the Legislature had already adopted with regard to

—as respects
the placing

district schools. Wherever any union has a workhouse in which the accommodation and means of instruction are greater than those required for the children of such union, the guardians, with the consent of the Poor Law Board, may agree with the guardians of any other union, situated within twenty miles, for the maintenance and instruction of any poor children under sixteen years of age, who are chargeable to the latter union, "being orphans, or deserted by their parents, or whose parents or surviving parent shall consent."

--and as respects the submission to the Determination of the Poor Law Board of Questions relating to Settlements, Removal, and Chargeability.

The expenses of litigation upon questions connected with the settlement, removal, and chargeability of the poor have frequently been made the subject of loud and just complaint. The legislation of the last few years, however, has materially diminished them, and we trust that another provision in the same Act of last session will be found to effect a still greater reduction. The 11 & 12 Vict. c. 31. (regulating the procedure in respect of orders of removal and appeals against such orders), and the 12 & 13 Vict. c. 45. (regulating the procedure in courts of quarter sessions), have swept away most of the purely technical objections, upon which, wholly irrespective of the real merits, appeals were so commonly determined. The effect of this change has been to lessen very materially the whole number of appeals, and to secure for those which still come into court a decision according to the truth and justice of each particular case. The aggregate amount, therefore, of the whole expenditure under this head has been greatly reduced, and so much of it as still remains is of a much less unsatisfactory character than formerly. Another important step by the Legislature in the same direction was taken by means of the 11 & 12 Vict. c. 110. s. 4., which enables the Poor Law Board to arbitrate (by consent) in cases of dispute between parishes in the same union, or between the union and any parish within it, as to the mode of charging the cost of relieving those poor persons whom the Poor Removal Act (9 & 10 Vict. c. 66.) exempts from liability to removal. But the Statute of last session (14 & 15 Vict. c. 105. s. 12.) contains a provision of a much more general and comprehensive character. It enables any two unions, or any two parishes, or a union and a parish, to refer, by mutual consent, to the arbitration of the Poor Law Board, any question whatever affecting the settlement, removal, or chargeability of any poor person; and the Poor Law Board are then empowered to decide the question by an order under their seal, which is to be binding and conclusive upon the parties to the reference. We have already reason to believe that this cheap and simple mode of determining such controversies will be adopted very extensively ; and though it may increase our own labours materially, we have the satisfaction of believing that it will be productive of important public benefits, not only by effecting a large pecuniary saving to ratepayers, but by diminishing those animosities and heart-burnings which costly litigation so naturally produces and exasperates.

All which we most humbly submit to Your Majesty.

M. T. BAINES,
President.

Poor Law Board, London,
22d March 1851.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to request that you will furnish them weekly with a Return in the Form sent to you herewith, of the number of Persons receiving In-door or Out-door relief in your Union, distinguishing in each case Adults (not able-bodied, and able-bodied,) and Children. Pauper Lunatics in Asylums and Vagrants are not to be included in the Return.

Paupers chargeable to the Common Fund of the Union should be included in the Return, as well as those chargeable to individual Parishes.

As the Board are desirous of adding as little as possible to the already onerous duties of the paid Officers of the Unions, they have limited this Return to those particulars which they deem to be essentially necessary for the purposes of the Department.

It is scarcely necessary to say that these Returns, in order to their being of any use to the Board, should be sent to them with unfailing regularity.

The first Return to be made, will be for the first week in the next quarter.

No. 2.

CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to the Boards of Guardians, on the Act of 14 & 15 Vict. c. 11., relating to Apprentices and Servants.

*Poor Law Board, London,
26th June 1851.*

SIR,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to bring under the notice of the Guardians the provisions of the Statute 14 & 15 Vict. c. 11., for the better protection of persons who are under the care and control of others as apprentices or servants.

Sect. 1. enacts that if the master or mistress of any person, being legally liable to provide for such person, as an apprentice or servant, necessary food, clothing or lodging, shall wilfully and without lawful excuse refuse or neglect to provide the same, or shall unlawfully and maliciously assault such person, whereby the life of such person shall be endangered, or the health of such person shall have been or shall be likely to be permanently injured, such master or mistress shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three years.

Sect. 2. enables the Court to allow the costs of a prosecution for every such offence, to be paid in the same manner as the costs of prosecutions under the 7th Geo. 4. c. 64.

The above clauses are of a general character, but the subsequent clauses particularly affect Boards of Guardians in the discharge of their duties, providing for the registration of young persons sent from the Workhouse as servants. They also provide for the visitation of such young persons, and of apprentices bound out by Guardians or Overseers while in service.

Sect. 3. requires the Guardians, and where there are no Guardians the Overseers, to keep a register, wherein shall be entered the name of every young person under the age of sixteen, hired or taken as a servant from the Workhouse, together with certain other particulars set out in the book, and mentioned below. The entry, when made, is to be signed by the Presiding Chairman of the Board of Guardians, or by an Overseer.

The Form of Register set forth in the Schedule is as follows :—

Name of Child.	Age.	Date of hiring or taking as Servant.	Name of Master or Mistress.	Trade, or other description of Master or Mistress.	Residence of Master or Mistress.

The Board must observe, however, that the use of this book will not supersede that of the Register of Parish Apprentices, required by the 42 Geo. 3. c. 46. and the 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101.

Sects. 4. & 5. provide for the periodical visitation of young servants and apprentices.

By the former section the Guardians or Overseers, as the case may be, where any young person under the age of sixteen shall have been or shall be hired or taken as a servant from the Workhouse, or shall have been or shall be bound as an apprentice by such Guardians or Overseers, are required, so long as such young person shall be under sixteen, and shall be known to them to reside as servant or apprentice in the same service into which such young person shall have so gone as a servant from such Workhouse, or as such apprentice, within the Union or Parish respectively, or within five miles from any part thereof, to cause the Relieving Officer, or, where there is no Relieving Officer, then some other Officer duly authorized for the purpose, to visit such young person at least twice in every year, and to report to them in writing whether he has found reason to believe that such young person is not supplied with necessary food, or is subjected to cruel or illegal treatment in any respect.

Sect. 5. provides for the case where the residence of the master or mistress shall be more than five miles from the Union or Parish from the Workhouse of which the young person shall have been hired, or taken as a servant, or from which Union or Parish the young person shall have been bound apprentice, and requires in respect of any such hiring or binding hereafter, the Guardians or Overseers of such Union or Parish to send a written notice of the hiring, taking, or binding, specifying the name and age of the apprentice or servant, and the name, description, and residence of the master or mistress, to the Guardians or Overseers of the Union or Parish in which the master or mistress shall reside. The names of such young persons and apprentices are then to be registered in a proper book by the Guardians or Overseers receiving the notice, and the latter are to cause such young persons to be visited as frequently and in the same manner as young persons hired out from their own Workhouse.

The Guardians will perceive, that in carrying these provisions into execution they must give their directions to their Officers to make the visitations at such times, and in such manner, as to enable them to obtain correct information as to the ordinary treatment of the young persons visited. At the same time, the visits must not be made at unseasonable hours, or in such a manner as to create unnecessary inconvenience or annoyance to the master or mistress of the young person; and the Officers should be informed that this Board will be prepared to treat with due animadversion any impertinence, or unnecessary and offensive intrusion, on the part of those Officers in the discharge of this duty.

The Board request that if any case of cruel or illegal treatment be reported to the Guardians of so serious a character as to require a prosecution, the Guardians will immediately communicate the same to this Board.

It is also to be observed, that the Statute authorizes a visit at any reasonable time, though it requires that such visits shall take place twice a year at least; so that if, on any occasion, the Guardians have probable cause to believe that any such young person is subjected to ill-treatment, it will be competent for them to cause their Officer forthwith to visit such person, and report upon the case to them at once.

The 6th Section of the Act will be found to relieve the Guardians from a difficulty which has not unfrequently arisen, in regard to the prosecution of persons charged with certain offences. It will be remembered, that the 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101. s. 59. confers upon Boards of Guardians power to pay the costs of prosecutions in respect to various offences and misdemeanors therein specified ; but in respect to other offences, it is at least doubtful how far they were legally authorized in expending their funds upon the prosecutions, and, consequently, a failure of justice may sometimes have taken place.

It is now, however, provided, that where any complaint shall be made of an offence against this Act (the nature of which appears from the 1st Section), or of any bodily injury inflicted upon any poor person under the age of 16 years, being an indictable offence, amounting to a felony, or an attempt to commit a felony, or an assault with intent to commit a felony, and two Examining Justices shall certify, that they deem it necessary for the purposes of public justice, that the prosecution shall be conducted by the Guardians of the Union or Parish, or the Overseers where there are no Guardians, such Guardians or Overseers shall, upon personal service of the certificate, or a duplicate thereof, upon the Clerk of the Guardians, or upon one of the Overseers, conduct the prosecution, and pay such reasonable costs as shall not be allowed to them by an order of the Court out of the common fund of the Union, or out of the funds in the hands of the Guardians or Overseers of the Parish.

Sect 7. enables the Examining Justices, when they deem it necessary to certify as before mentioned, to bind over the Clerk, or some other Officer of the Guardians, and in case of a parish not under a Board of Guardians, one of the Overseers to prosecute such offender.

No. 3.

CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to the Boards of Guardians, on the Repayment of the Expenses of the Census of 1851.

Poor Law Board, London,

4th August 1851.

SIR,

THE Poor Law Board, in their Letter of the 7th of November last, having adverted to the provisions contained in the Act 13 & 14 Vict. c. 53. for the taking of the Census, stated that some arrangements would probably be entered into for repaying the expenses payable by the Guardians under this Act, and that the Board might have occasion to address them on the subject.

The Board learn that the accounts of these expenses have in many Unions been forwarded to the Registrar General, and the Treasurers of those Unions will shortly receive from him directions as to the reimbursement of the payments made by the Guardians. In those Unions where the accounts have not yet been forwarded to the Registrar General, it is advisable that they should be sent without further delay, that the reimbursement may be made before the close of the current half year.

But the Board desire to advert to one point connected with this subject, in reference to the accounts of the Union. The 19th section of the above Act provides that the Guardians shall pay to the Superintendent Registrar, out of the monies in their hands as such Guardians, the several allowances therein provided for. It is therein enacted, that when the district of any Superintendent Registrar, Registrar, or Enumerator, contains more than one parish or place, or parts of more than one parish or place, the Guardians shall apportion the whole sum so paid or to be paid on account of that district, among the several parishes and places, any part of which is within such district, in such manner as to them shall seem fit.

This provision, which has been taken from the Statute passed on the occasion of the Census of 1841, when there was no reimbursement to the Unions and Parishes, may be necessary if the reimbursement do not take place during the same half-year as that in which the payment has been made. But as the reimbursement can be effected in all cases before Michaelmas, the Board think that the apportionment of the expenditure and reimbursement among the several parishes in the Union would only impose a labour upon the Guardians and their clerks for no useful purpose. The Board, therefore, consider that this provision may be construed as one of a directory nature, which may be dispensed with if the Guardians think proper.

The Guardians must, however, charge the Common Fund with the sum which they pay, and credit it with the reimbursement.

Both sums should also appear upon their respective sides of the financial statement.

I am, &c.

W. G. LUMLEY,
Assistant Secretary.

No. 4.

CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to the Boards of Guardians, on the Acts of 14 & 15 Vict. cc. 105. 47. 39.

Poor Law Board, London,
30th September 1851.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to call the attention of the Guardians to some statutes passed in the last session of Parliament which relate to the administration of the laws for the relief of the poor.

I. The first of these, in point of importance, is the 14 & 15 Vict. c. 105.

Section 1. of this statute continues the temporary provisions which have been made by former Acts for charging the relief of certain poor persons in unions upon the common fund for another year, namely, until the 30th day of September 1852, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament.

Section 2. removes a doubt which has frequently arisen in respect of unions or parishes divided into wards for the election of Guardians. In some parishes or wards there may be no contest, and the election of Guardians for such parishes or wards may be completed on the last day of nomination; whereas in others the election may be contested, and protracted for a considerable time. It has been doubted who are to constitute the Board of Guardians during the interval; namely, whether the whole of the Guardians of the last year, or those whose election is completed, together with the Guardians of the last year for the parishes where the election is not complete.

This Section provides that the Guardians who are elected for the several parishes in a union, or for the several wards in any parish, shall continue to act as such until the 15th day of April inclusive in each year; and after that day every Guardian newly elected for any such parish or ward shall act as such Guardian for the ensuing year.

If on this day the election shall not have been concluded in respect of any parish or ward, the provision in the 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101. s. 17. will, as the Board presume, come into operation, and the Guardian of the previous year will continue to be entitled to act for the period of forty days after the 25th of March, or until his successor has been elected.

Section 3. provides a remedy for certain fraudulent and improper practices which have sometimes occurred during the election of Guardians, rendering parties guilty of any of the offences therein specified liable to punishment upon summary conviction.

It enacts, that if any person, pending or after the election of any Guardian, shall wilfully, fraudulently, and with intent to affect the result of such election, commit any of these acts; that is to say,—

Fabricate (in whole or in part), alter, deface, destroy, abstract, or purloin any nomination or voting paper used therein;

Or personate any person entitled to vote at such election;

Or falsely assume to act in the name or on the behalf of any person so entitled to vote;

Or interrupt the distribution or collection of the voting papers;

Or distribute or collect the same under a false pretence of being lawfully authorized to do so;

Every such person so offending shall be liable, upon conviction before two Justices, to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding three months, with or without hard labour.

The Board anticipate that this enactment will tend to remove the objections which have been sometimes urged against the present mode of election of Guardians by voting papers delivered and collected, in consequence of the frauds to which it has been exposed.

Section 4. enables Guardians, with the consent of the Poor Law Board, to subscribe annually towards the support and maintenance of any public hospital or infirmary for the reception of sick, diseased, disabled, or wounded persons, or of persons suffering from any permanent or natural infirmity.

It will be observed that this authority is limited to particular cases only, and requires the consent of the Poor Law Board to be given to its exercise. Those Boards of Guardians who may be desirous of subscribing to hospitals or infirmaries should communicate with this Board, so that no question may arise as to the legality of payments made by way of subscriptions to such establishments.

Section 5. supplies an authority to Boards of Guardians, where they think fit, to pay or reimburse any of their officers the expenses necessarily incurred in repairing or restoring property belonging to such officer, which may have been unlawfully, wilfully, and maliciously damaged, injured, or destroyed by any person applying or having applied for relief, as well as the costs which may be incurred in the prosecution of the offender, and which shall not have been allowed by the court.

Cases have not unfrequently arisen where vagrants or dissatisfied and malicious paupers have destroyed the windows or other property of the Relieving Officer or Master of the Workhouse. It has been considered that the Guardians could not legally reimburse their Officer for the loss which he had thus sustained, as such reimbursement was not a purpose to which the funds in the possession of the Guardians were legally applicable. This section invests the Guardians with a discretionary power to do this. The Guardians will no doubt exercise due discrimination in availing themselves of this power, and ascertain in every case that there has been no unnecessary harshness or misconduct of any kind on the part of the Officer, which may have provoked the attack upon his property. With reference to the costs of prosecuting such offenders, the Board think that the Guardians should either be informed of the prosecution before it is commenced, or as soon afterwards as shall be practicable, in order that they may exercise a control over it, if they deem it necessary, before it is too late for them to interfere.

Section 6. The provision contained in this Section is one which, though not of general application, will occasionally prove very convenient.

Where in any Union or Parish there shall be a workhouse or building having adequate provision for the reception, maintenance, and education of poor children, and there shall be more accommodation therein at any time than the Guardians may require for the poor children of their own Union or Parish, such Guardians may, under this section, with the consent of the Poor

Law Board, contract with the Guardians of any other union or parish, any part of which is not more than twenty miles from such workhouse or other building, for the reception, maintenance, and instruction therein of any poor children of particular classes, namely, children under the age of sixteen, being orphans or deserted by their parents, or whose parents or surviving parent shall consent.

Such last-mentioned children, while at such workhouse, are to be maintained and instructed in the same manner in all respects, and be subject to the like control and management of the Guardians, as the children of the union or parish to which such workhouse belongs ; but the abiding of any such child in any such workhouse is to be attended with the same legal consequences as if such workhouse had been situated within the union or parish from which such child shall have been sent.

The 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101. s. 51. enables the Guardians of a union or parish to send such children as are above described to a district school within a certain limit as to distance ; and the 12 & 13 Vict. c. 103. s. 14. empowers the Guardians of one union or parish to contract for the reception and maintenance in their workhouse of the paupers of another union or parish in the particular cases therein specified. Comparatively few school districts have yet been established ; and the last-recited provision is limited to cases quite distinct from those which form the subject of the new enactment.

Section 7. The 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 69. contained in its schedule a form of security to be given in respect of money borrowed for the purposes of the Poor Law Amendment Act, but through some defect in the enacting part of the statute that form was found not to be available. A form is provided by Section 7. of the present Act, which will be applicable to all cases of money borrowed under an order of the Poor Law Commissioners or Poor Law Board. As this form of security will now be sufficient, and will be less expensive than that which has heretofore been used, the Board will think it their duty to require its adoption in all cases which may come before them.

Section 8. The charges under suspended orders of removal not having been hitherto payable until the time when the suspension was taken off, much inconvenience has often been felt, particularly in small parishes, by the large demand suddenly made on the death or actual removal of a pauper, whose illness may have been of long duration, and whose chargeability to the parish may have been forgotten.

Provision is now made in Section 8. by which the Overseers of the parish of the settlement may pay the costs of the maintenance from time to time during the suspension of the order of removal. The Legislature have left the exercise of this power in the discretion of the Overseers, as it may in some cases be considered advisable not to make the payment until the removal. But the Board think that the course authorized by the statute may generally be pursued with great advantage, as it will induce a more careful and vigilant inquiry into the circumstances and condition of the pauper to whom the order applies, and obviate the inconvenience which might result from a large demand being made unexpectedly in respect of the pauper on his death or removal taking place.

Section 9. is one of much importance to those unions which extend into several separate jurisdictions. The Treasurer of a union may reside or have his place of business in one jurisdiction, while the Overseer or officer who ought to pay money to the Treasurer may live in another jurisdiction ; and doubts have been entertained, when it has been necessary to take legal proceedings for default of payment, as to what justices were empowered to hear the complaint and enforce the payment.

Under this Section the justices of the county, district, or place in which the overseer or officer shall reside at the time of the default, or in which the treasurer shall reside or have his place of business, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the complaint.

Those justices should therefore be applied to whose jurisdiction will be most convenient for the several parties in the particular case.

Section 10. As copies of orders of removal and statements of the grounds of removal may be sent by post, so notices of appeal against such orders and statements of the grounds of such appeal may now be sent by post, according to this section.

Section 11. Under Section 6 of the 9 & 10 Vict. c. 66. any officer of a parish or union wrongfully causing any poor person to be removed or conveyed or to depart from a parish under the circumstances therein described, is rendered punishable upon conviction before two justices ; but some difficulties have been experienced in carrying this clause into effect, and it is the object of the present section to remove those difficulties. In the first place it is enacted, that the word "officer" in the 9 & 10 Vict. c. 66. s. 6. shall include an "overseer," there having been some doubt whether an overseer is within the legal construction of that clause.

Another point is also cleared up, namely, as to what justices should hear the complaint. The parish from which the pauper was sent might be in one county or jurisdiction, and that to which the pauper was removed might be in another, and it has been a question which justices ought to hear the complaint in such a case. It is now enacted that the term "justices" shall apply to "the justices of either county or jurisdiction," so that the justices of either may hear and determine the complaint. Here it will of course be a question in what jurisdiction it will be most convenient that the case should be heard, which will generally depend upon the place of abode of the witnesses who may be required to prove the case.

Lastly, provision is made in respect of the application of the penalty. The 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 76. s. 99., and the 9 & 10 Vict. c. 66. s. 6., taken together, seemed to require that the penalty should be paid to the parish where the offence was committed ; and there was no doubt that the offence was always, in part at least, committed in that parish from which the pauper was sent, so that the penalty was payable to the offending parish. This Section directs that the penalty shall be paid to the overseers of the parish to which the pauper becomes chargeable by reason of the unlawful removal.

Section 12. has been framed with the view of diminishing the costs which parishes incur in the litigation of questions of settlement or chargeability, and confers upon the Poor Law Board a power of deciding questions affecting the settlement, removal, or chargeability of poor persons when submitted to them by the parties interested therein by agreement in writing duly executed.

It is quite optional with the parties whether they will submit the question to the Board, or not, and it is also in the discretion of the Poor Law Board whether they will entertain the question. If they do so, and determine the question by an order, their order will be conclusive in all courts between the parties submitting the question, as to the question determined.

The Board do not propose to prescribe any particular course to be pursued by parties desirous of availing themselves of this provision. But they must state distinctly that, as a general rule, they will think it necessary to require a statement of facts, mutually agreed upon, to be laid before them, and the question or questions upon which their decision is requested, to be clearly and precisely stated.

Section 13. facilitates the proceedings of parishes upon the removal of paupers, by authorizing the officers who are empowered by the 9 & 10 Vict. c. 66. s. 7. to deliver a pauper under an order of removal at the workhouse of the parish or union to which such pauper is to be removed, at the same to deliver a written statement of the charges for the maintenance of the pauper to the officer of the workhouse, which delivery is to be deemed to be a delivery of such statement to the overseers of the parish, and a sufficient demand in any proceedings for the recovery of such charges.

The Poor Law Commissioners, in their circular of the 17th Sept. 1846, advised the Guardians to give directions to the officers of the workhouse, especially the master and the porter, that when a pauper should be brought to the workhouse with a warrant of removal under the 9 & 10 Vict. c. 66. s. 7. they should take the earliest opportunity of communicating the fact of his delivery at the workhouse to the Overseers to whom the warrant was addressed.

The Board recommend the Guardians to give similar directions with reference to this statement of charges, and it is the more important that this should be done, as the Overseers upon service of such a statement become immediately liable to proceedings for the discharge of the amount.

Sections 14. and 15. apply only to the dissolution of the asylum districts which were formed under the 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101. in the metropolis, and they are of too limited an application to require particular notice in this letter.

Section 16. is also confined to the metropolis and its neighbourhood, and extends the powers of raising money conferred upon the Board of Management of a school district situated within the Metropolitan Police District.

Section 17. The powers of the Board of Management of any school district over the land of the district had not hitherto been well defined, and it is now provided by this Section that they may, subject to the order and regulations of the Poor Law Board, deal with the land belonging to the district in like manner as the Guardians of a union may deal with that belonging to the union.

The 13 & 14 Vict. c. 101. s. 9. subjected persons assaulting the officers of a workhouse or relieving officers in the discharge of their duty to the same punishment as in the case of assaults upon peace officers, and gave power to the justices to make the like order as to the costs and expenses of the prosecution. By the present section this provision is extended to an assault upon any person included under the word "officer" in the 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 76. or upon any other person acting in his aid.

Without enumerating all the persons comprehended under that word in the 109th section of that statute, it may be well to remark that it applies to a Collector, Vestry Clerk, and Assistant Overseer.

II. The Board, in their circular of the 26th of June last, communicated to the Guardians an abstract of the statute 14 & 15 Vict. c. 11. relating to the protection of parish apprentices and young servants, and need not now refer further to it.

III. The Act for exempting inhabitants from liability to be rated as such to the relief of the poor in respect of stock in trade or other property is continued by the 14 & 15 Vict. c. 47. till the 1st October 1852, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament.

IV. By the 14 & 15 Vict. c. 39., which amends the 13 & 14 Vict. c. 99. (the small tenements rating act), with reference to its effect upon certain parliamentary franchises, an explanation is given of the word tenement as used in that Act, by which the operation of the statute is somewhat restricted. By section 2. it is enacted, that the word "tenement" therein shall be construed to mean any house, cottage, apartment, or building, and land, in the same parish, held with the same or any of them, but shall not include any other land or corporeal hereditament.

It will be seen, therefore, that the owners of small pieces of land occupied alone, without house or building, will not be liable to be assessed to the poor and highway rates in the place of the occupiers.

Section 3. removes a doubt which has been felt as to the application of the statute to owners in respect of the payment of monies out of the poor rate to the borough, county, police, or other similar rate. It is now enacted that the words "rates for the relief of the poor" used in the 13 & 14 Vict. c. 99. shall be construed to mean "rates for the relief of the poor, and for other purposes chargeable thereon according to law." The same

Section also renders the owners of this class of tenements liable to be assessed to the rates levied in divided parishes under the 12 & 13 Vict. c. 65.

The Board do not think it necessary for them to bring any other enactment of the session under the special notice of the Guardians at this time.

CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to the Boards of Guardians, on the Apprenticeship of Boys to the Sea Service.

Poor Law Board, London,

14th October 1851.

SIR,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to transmit on the other side, for the information of the Guardians, an extract from instructions which were issued in June last by the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade, with the view of rendering the services of the shipping masters appointed under the 13 & 14 Vict. c. 93., or of the officers of customs acting as shipping masters, available for giving facilities for the apprenticeship of boys to the sea service. I am also directed to send on the other side a copy of the enactment contained in the 14 & 15 Vict. c. 96. s. 14. (passed in the last session of Parliament), which has reference to the same subject, together with an extract from instructions issued in August last by the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade in consequence of the passing of that Act.

---

C.

With reference to the subject of the above-mentioned documents the Poor Law Board desire to express their opinion that the arrangements made by the Board of Trade are calculated to be of material benefit in promoting the apprenticeship of pauper boys to the sea service, and they request that in taking any proceedings for that purpose the Guardians will communicate on the subject with the shipping masters or officers acting as shipping masters at the neighbouring ports, from whom, as being responsible officers, the Guardians will obtain information and assistance which may be fully relied on, and which will enable them to proceed with confidence in the apprenticeship of the boys.

A list of the names of the shipping masters at the ports to which the instructions of the Board of Trade are applicable is appended to this letter, together with a reference to the ports at which the officers of customs act as shipping masters.

The Board think it right to draw the especial attention of the Guardians to the fact that at the ports mentioned in the document last referred to there are no longer any licensed agents authorized by the Board of Trade to hire, engage, supply, or provide seamen (or apprentices) to be entered on board merchant ships under the provisions of the 8 & 9 Vict. c. 116. The Board trust, therefore, that the Guardians will, in all cases where they desire to effect apprenticeships at such ports, take care to employ no one as their agent in the matter except the shipping masters and officers of customs above alluded to.

I am, &c.

R. W. GREY,

Note.—The following Paragraph is, in ports where there are Local Marine Boards, to apply only if approved of by such Boards.

APPRENTICES.

Every Shipping Master is, if applied to for the purpose by the Guardians of any Union or Parish or by Overseers of the Poor or persons having the authority of Overseers, to keep in some conspicuous place in the Shipping Office, in such form as may be considered most convenient, a list containing the names of any parish boys whom such Guardians or Overseers may wish to have apprenticed to the sea service, with such information concerning them as may be thought desirable, and shall allow such list to be inspected by any masters or owners who may want apprentices; and he is, so far as he conveniently can, to act as a channel of communication between the Guardians or Overseers and any masters or owners requiring apprentices. And he is to give to both parties any information or assistance in his power for the purpose of facilitating the making of apprenticeships to the sea service in such a manner as to be satisfactory and beneficial to all parties concerned.

14 & 15 Vict. c. 96. s. 14.

All shipping masters appointed under the said Mercantile Marine Act, 1850, shall, if applied to for the purpose, give to any Boards of Guardians or other persons desirous of apprenticing boys to the sea service, and to masters and owners of ships requiring apprentices, such assistance as is in their power, and is consistent with their other duties, for facilitating the making of such apprenticeships, and shall, notwithstanding anything in the Act of the ninth year of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and sixteen, or in the Mercantile Marine Act, 1850, contained, be entitled to demand and receive from persons availing themselves of such assistance such fees as may be determined in that behalf by the Board of Trade, with the concurrence, so far as relates to parish apprentices, of the Poor Law Board, and such fees shall be accounted for and applied in the same manner as fees received under the Mercantile Marine Act, 1850.

EXTRACT from "APPENDIX to INSTRUCTIONS to SHIPPING MASTERS, issued in consequence of the passing of the MERCANTILE MARINE ACT AMENDMENT ACT, 1851, 14 & 15 Victoria, c. 96."

Note.—In places where there are Local Boards, these instructions must, except so far as relates to money matters and accounts, be approved by those Boards before they are adopted by the shipping masters.

VI.—APPRENTICES.

Sect. 14. This section has been introduced for the purpose of giving further effect to the object contemplated in the Third Appendix to Shipping Masters Instructions, paragraph 1. This section applies, however, not only to parish apprentices, but to all apprentices to the sea service; and shipping masters should use all means which are in their power to facilitate the making of apprenticeships, and to bring masters and owners who need apprentices in contact with those who wish to be bound or to bind others to the service. Upon each apprenticeship completed by the shipping master's assistance the fee of 3s., which has been approved by the Poor Law Board, may be charged, and may be retained by the shipping master as a remuneration for his trouble. A statement of fees so received must be sent in with the usual accounts to the Board of Trade.

This arrangement as to remuneration will, in the case of shipping masters appointed by Local Marine Boards, be subject to the approval of those Boards, who are requested to communicate with the Board of Trade if they desire to alter it.

December 1851.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

EMIGRATION TO SOUTH AUSTRALIA :—REGULATIONS FOR THE SELECTION OF EMIGRANTS, AND CONDITIONS ON WHICH PASSAGES ARE GRANTED.

Qualifications of Emigrants.

1. The Emigrants must be of those callings which, from time to time, are most in demand in the colony. They must be sober, industrious, and of general good moral character; of all of which decisive certificates will be required. They must also be in good health, free from all bodily or mental defects; and the adults must, in all respects, be capable of labour, and going out to work for wages. The candidates most acceptable are young married couples without children.

2. The separation of husbands and wives, and of parents from children under 18, will in no case be allowed.

3. Single women cannot be taken without their parents, unless they go under the immediate care of some near relatives. Single women with illegitimate children can in no case be taken.

4. Single men cannot be taken except in a number not exceeding that of the single women by the same ship.

5. Widowers and widows with young children, persons who intend to buy land or to invest capital in trade, or who are in the habitual receipt of parish relief, or who have not been vaccinated or had the small-pox, or whose families comprise more than four children under twelve years of age, cannot be accepted.

Application and Approval.

6. Applications must be made to the Commissioners in the Form annexed. The filling up of the Form, however, confers no claim to a passage; and implies no pledge that the candidates, though apparently within the regulations, will be accepted.

7. If approved of, the applicants will receive a printed "Approval Circular," calling for the contribution required by Article 8, and pointing out how the money is to be paid. After it is paid, they will, as soon as practicable, receive an Embarkation Order (which is not transferable), naming the ship in which they are to embark, and the time and place of joining her. They must not leave their homes before the receipt of this Order.

Payments towards Passages.

8. The contributions above-mentioned, out of which the Commissioners will provide bedding and mess utensils, &c. for the voyage, will be as follows:—

CLASSES.	Age
	Under 45.	45 and under 50.	50 and under 60.
I. Married agricultural labourers, shepherds, herdsmen, miners, and their wives, also female domestic and farm servants, per head - - - }	£ 1	£ 5	£ 11
II. Single men of any of the above callings, and whether part of a family or not, each - - }	2
III. Country mechanics, such as blacksmiths, bricklayers, carpenters, masons, sawyers, wheelwrights, and gardeners, and their wives, also females of the working class, not being domestic or farm servants, (when they can be taken,) per head - - }	5 s.	8	15
IV. Children under 14, per head -	10

Passages to the port of embarkation from Dublin, Cork, Granton Pier, and Hull, are provided by the Commissioners for emigrants proceeding through those ports. All other travelling expenses must be borne by the Emigrants themselves.

Cautions to Applicants.

9. No preparations must on any account be made by the Applicants, either by withdrawing from employment or otherwise, until they receive the "Approval Circular." Applicants who fail to attend to this warning will do so at their own risk, and will have no claim whatever on the Commissioners.

10. The Selecting Agents of the Board have no authority to promise passages in any case, nor to receive money. If, therefore, applicants wish to make their payments through the Agents, instead of in the manner pointed out in the "Approval Circular," they must understand that they do so at their own risk, and that the Commissioners will in no way be responsible.

11. Should any signatures attached to an applicant's paper prove to be not genuine, or should any false representations be made in the papers, not only will the application be rejected, but the offenders will be liable, under the Passengers' Act, 12 & 13 Vict. cap. 38., to a PENALTY NOT EXCEEDING £50.

12. Should any applicants be found on personal examination at the depôt, or on board, to have made any mis-statement in their papers, or to have any infectious disorder, or otherwise not to be in a fit state of health to embark, or to have any mental or bodily defect likely to impair their usefulness as labourers, or to have left any of their young children behind, or to have brought with them more children than are mentioned in their Application Form, or expressly sanctioned by the Commissioners, or to have attempted any deception whatever, or evasion of these Rules, they will be refused admission on board the ship, or, if embarked, will be landed without having any claim on the Commissioners. If after embarkation emigrants are guilty of insubordination or misconduct, they will be relanded, and forfeit their contributions.

13. If applicants fail to attend at the appointed time and place for embarkation, without having previously given to the Commissioners timely notice, and a satisfactory reason,—or if they fail to proceed in the ship, or are rejected for any of the reasons specified in the preceding Article, they will forfeit their contributions, and will have no claim to a passage at any future time.

Outfit, &c.

14. The Commissioners supply provisions, medical attendance, and cooking utensils at their depôt and on board the ship; also, new mattresses, bolsters, blankets, and counterpanes, canvas bags to contain linen, &c., knives and forks, spoons, metal plates, and drinking mugs; which articles will be given after arrival in the colony to the emigrants who have behaved well on the voyage.

15. The emigrants must bring their own clothing, which will be inspected at the port by an officer of the Commissioners; and they will not be allowed to embark unless they have a sufficient stock for the voyage, not less, for each person, than—

FOR MALES.

Six shirts,
Six pairs stockings,
Two ditto shoes,
Two complete suits of exterior clothing,

FOR FEMALES.

Six shifts,
Two flannel petticoats,
Six pairs stockings,
Two ditto shoes,
Two gowns,

With sheets, towels, and soap. But the larger the stock of clothing the better for health and comfort during the voyage, which usually lasts about four months; and as the emigrants have always to pass through very hot and very cold weather, they should be prepared for both; 2 or 3 serge shirts for men, and flannel for women and children, are strongly recommended.

16. The emigrants should take out with them the necessary tools of their trades that are not bulky. But the whole quantity of baggage for each adult must not measure more than 20 cubic or solid feet, nor exceed half a ton in weight. It must be closely packed in one or more boxes; but no box must exceed in size 10 cubic feet. Large packages and extra baggage, if it can be taken at all, must be paid for. Mattresses and feather beds will in no case be taken.

17. On arrival in the colony the emigrants will be at perfect liberty to engage themselves to any one willing to employ them, and to make their own bargain for wages.

18. All applications should be addressed, post-paid, to S. Walcott, Esquire, No. 9, Park Street, Westminster.

STEPHEN WALCOTT,
Secretary.

REPORT.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

*Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
December 31, 1852.*

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,

We, the Poor Law Board, beg to submit to Your Majesty the following Report in reference to our proceedings during the last year :

Adhering to the arrangement of the subjects observed in the preceding Annual Reports, we propose to set forth in the first place the amount expended during the year in the relief of the poor ; and in the next place, the number of persons relieved ; and we shall then proceed to advert to such other points connected with the administration of the poor laws as appear to us to require notice.

We find from the Poor Rate Returns, summaries of which are inserted in the Appendix, that the Amount expended for the relief of the poor, during the year ended at Lady-day 1852, was 4,897,685*l.*, being a decrease of 65,019*l.*, (or 1·3 per cent.) on the sum expended during the preceding year. This decrease amounts to one penny per head on the population ; the expenditure per head during the year ended at Lady-day 1852 being 5*s.* 5½*d.*, and during the preceding year 5*s.* 6½*d.*

The following Table shows the same particulars :—

Years ended Lady-day.	Expended for Relief of the Poor in England and Wales.	Decrease in 1852, as compared with 1851.	Decrease per Cent.	Rate per Head on Population.	Decrease per Head in 1852, as compared with 1851.
1852	4,897,685			5 5½

Note.—The Poor Rate Return inserted in the Appendix (pages 40 to 81) sets forth the expenditure, the total of which is shown in the above Table, more in detail. It shows the amount expended for “in-maintenance” (column 1.) “out-relief” (column 2.), and “other purposes immediately connected with relief” (column 3.), which “other purposes” comprehend the salaries of all Poor Law Officers (assistant overseers and collectors excepted), the repayment of money borrowed for building and altering workhouses, the cost incurred for emigration, for the maintenance of lunatics in asylums, for extra medical relief and fees, and for the burial of paupers.

A decrease of only 65,019*l.* on so large an expenditure may seem to be inconsiderable ; but it should be recollected that it is a decrease on an amount of expenditure previously greatly reduced. Reference to previous Annual Reports of the Poor Law Board will show that the expenditure for the year ended at Lady-day 1848 (being the first year for which the Board have had to make out the account) amounted to 6,180,764*l.* ; that the expenditure for the year ended at Lady-day 1849 amounted to 5,792,963*l.*, being a decrease of 387,801*l.* ; that the expenditure for the year ended at Lady-day 1850 amounted to 5,395,022*l.*, being a further decrease of 397,941*l.* ; and that the expenditure for the year ended at Lady-day 1851 amounted to 4,962,704*l.*, being a still further decrease of 432,318*l.* Comparing the amount expended for relief during the year ended at Lady-day 1852, with the amount expended during the year ended at Lady-day 1848, it will be seen that the decrease in the four years amounts to no less a sum than 1,283,078*l.*

It may be convenient to exhibit these figures in a tabular form, as follows :—

Years ended Lady-day.	Expended for Relief of the Poor in England and Wales.	Amount of Decrease in each Year as compared with the preceding Year.	Decrease per Cent.	Rate per Head on Population.	Decrease per Head in each Year as compared with the preceding Year.
1849	5,792,963	387,801	6·6	6 6 $\frac{1}{2}$	0 7 $\frac{1}{4}$
1850	5,395,022	397,941	6·9	6 1	0 5 $\frac{1}{2}$
1851	4,962,704	432,318	8·0	5 6 $\frac{1}{2}$	0 6 $\frac{1}{2}$
1852	4,897,685	65,019	1·3	5 5 $\frac{1}{2}$	0 1
Decrease in 1852, as compared with 1848 }		1,283,078	20·8 {	7 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ 5 5 $\frac{1}{2}$	1 8 $\frac{1}{4}$

Although the total of the expenditure for the relief of the poor in England and Wales shows a decrease on the year ended Lady-day 1852 as compared with the year ended Lady-day 1851, we find that in some of the counties the expenditure has increased. The rates per cent. of the increase and decrease in the several counties are as follow :—

Increase per cent. :—

Durham . . . 0·8	Suffolk . . . 2·5	Carnarvon . . . 1·5
Lancaster . . . 2·4	Warwick . . . 2·8	Glamorgan . . . 2·5
Leicester . . . 6·9	York (E. Riding) 3·0	Pembroke . . . 2·1
Lincoln . . . 0·5		Radnor . . . 4·9
Monmouth . . . 4·0	Anglesey . . . 0·6
Salop . . . 2·6	Cardigan . . . 4·6

Decrease per cent. :—

Bedford . . . 3·4	Huntingdon . . 1·9	Sussex . . . 1·1
Berks . . . 7·6	Kent . . . 0·7	Westmoreland . . 5·1
Buckingham . . 4·3	Middlesex . . . 3·6	Wilts . . . 2·7
Chester . . . 1·6	Norfolk . . . 1·5	Worcester . . . 2·5
Cornwall . . . 1·9	Northampton . . 4·9	York (North Riding) 6·2
Cumberland . . 0·2	Northumberland 1·1	York (West Riding) 1·3
Derby . . . 4·7	Nottingham . . . 0·6
Devon . . . 1·8	Oxford . . . 4·6	Brecon . . . 6·9
Dorset . . . 2·8	Rutland . . . 1·1	Carmarthen . . . 1·3

Gloucester . . . 3·3	Southampton . . 2·0	Flint . . . 2·7
Hereford . . . 0·9	Stafford . . . 0·5	Merioneth . . . 1·6
Hertford . . . 3·6	Surrey . . . 1·2	Montgomery . . . 2·3

Restricting the amount expended for relief to the cost of actual relief (in-door and out-door), and comparing the year ended at Michaelmas 1852 with the year ended at Michaelmas 1851, we find that a somewhat larger decrease has taken place than is shown by the comparison already made of the general expenditure for relief during the years ended at Lady-day 1852 and 1851. In the latter case the decrease is only 1·3 per cent., while in the former it is 2·6 per cent., as will be seen by the following Table :—

Number of Unions.	Years.	Expended for In-Maintenance and Out-Relief.
		In-Maintenance.	Out-Relief.	Total.
607	Year ended Michaelmas 1851 -	£ 642,246	£ 2,646,944	£ 3,289,190
	Year ended Michaelmas 1852 -	619,623	2,584,154	3,203,777
Decrease in the year ended Michaelmas 1852 . . . . .		22,623	62,790	85,413 or 2·6 per Cent.

The returns of the number of persons in receipt of relief on the 1st January and the 1st July 1852 show that a slight decrease has taken place during the year in the amount as well as in the cost of pauperism.

Comparing the number of persons of all classes in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1852 in 607 Unions with the number in receipt of relief in the same Unions on the 1st January 1851, we find that there has been a decrease of 27,467 persons, or 3·2 per cent.

Comparing the number of persons of all classes in receipt of relief on the 1st July 1852 in 607 Unions with the number in receipt of relief in the same Unions on the 1st July 1851, we find that there has been a decrease of 16,855 persons, or 2·1 per cent.

Comparing the number of adult able-bodied persons in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1852 in 607 Unions with the number in receipt of relief in the same Unions on the 1st January 1851, we find that there has been a decrease of 17,235 persons, or 11·2 per cent.

Comparing the number of adult able-bodied persons in receipt of relief on the 1st July 1852 in 607 Unions with the number in receipt of relief in the same Unions on the 1st July 1851, we find that there has been a decrease of 6,988 persons, or 5·3 per cent.

The following Tables exhibit these points more in detail :—

Returns have been received, during the progress of printing this Report, of the number of persons in receipt of relief in 607 Unions and Single Parishes, under Boards of Guardians, in England and Wales, on the 1st January 1853. Summaries of these returns are inserted in the Appendix (pages 100, 108, and 109).

The following comparison of the number in receipt of relief (in-door and out-door) on the 1st January 1853, with the number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1852 exhibits a progressive decrease:—

As respects paupers of all classes,—

The number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1852 - 835,360
The number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1853 - 799,443

Decrease - - - - 35,917 or 4·3 per cent.

As respects adult able-bodied paupers,—

The number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1852 - 137,318
The number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1853 - 126,220

Decrease - - - - 11,098 or 8·1 per cent.

In twelve of the English counties and in eight of the Welsh there appears to have been an increase in the number of the adult able-bodied paupers in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1853, as compared with the number in receipt of relief on the 1st January 1852; but in all the other counties there was a decrease. The rate per cent. of the increase and decrease in the several counties is as follows:—

Vaccination.

A summary of the Returns relating to Vaccination for the year ended 29th September 1852 is given in the Appendix, page 150. This summary shows the total number of persons vaccinated by the public vaccinators in England and Wales during the year to have been 411,600, being an increase upon the number vaccinated in the last year of 62,509. The summary also shows that the number of cases in which vaccination has been successful is 397,128, which is an increase of 58,181 upon the number successfully vaccinated in 1851. In the tables of mortality published by the Registrar General many deaths are stated to have been occasioned during the year from the small-pox, through neglect on the part of parents to have their children vaccinated. We deemed it necessary, therefore, to call the attention of the Guardians of the several Unions to the mortality arising from this epidemic, and suggested that the public vaccinators should avail themselves of every opportunity of pointing out to the poorer classes the danger of leaving their children exposed to attack from small-pox, and the serious results which too often follow the neglect of vaccination; and also that printed notices calling public attention to the arrangements made for the gratuitous performance of the operation should be issued. We have reason to believe that the guardians and public vaccinators generally are now actively co-operating to extend the practice of vaccination amongst the poorer classes in their respective districts.

A summary of returns received by the Board in regard to pauper lunatics will be found in the Appendix (page 152). The total number of insane persons chargeable on the 1st January 1852 appears to be 21,158. Of this number 13,059 (5,679 males and 7,380 females) were lunatics, and 8,099 (3,842 males, and 4,257 females) were idiots. 9,412 were maintained in county or borough lunatic asylums, 2,584 in licensed houses, 5,055 in union workhouses, and 4,107 with their friends. The total cost of maintaining pauper lunatics appears to be 321,961*l*. It should be stated, however, that this total is an estimate only, based on the actual cost during the week comprising the 1st January 1852.

We regret that we are not in a position to report that any increase has actually taken place during the past year in the number of school districts, under the provisions of the Act of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101. We have, however, learnt with much satisfaction that measures are in progress in the

Alcester, Atherstone, Foleshill, King's Norton, Meriden, Nuneaton, Rugby, Solihull, Stratford-on-Avon, Tamworth, and Warwick Unions for the formation of a school district in the counties of Stafford and Warwick. We have informed the Guardians of our readiness to lend them all practicable assistance in the prosecution of this highly advantageous design. As regards school districts already formed, the reports which we have received from our Inspectors lead us to believe that the efficiency of those schools is advancing, and that the beneficial results which we have always anticipated from the operation of district schools are becoming annually more perceptible. In the Metropolitan district, Mr. Hall reports that "The managers of the Central London District School have hired, with the consent of the Poor Law Board, eighteen additional acres of land (making the whole quantity forty-five acres), in order to extend among the boys the benefit of out-door labour, combined with instruction in agriculture. The many advantages to be derived from this mode of management are satisfactorily developed in the North Surrey District School, and among them is conspicuous the healthy animated tone which pervades the children, both as respects body and mind; the improvement perceptible in their physiognomy and bearing is too striking to be overlooked, and it is especially gratifying to add that a corresponding amelioration in their moral character has been simultaneously produced." As regards the South Metropolitan School District, we stated in our last Report that as the difficulties which had previously prevented the execution of the plan contemplated by the managers had been removed by the 14 & 15 Vict. c. 105. s. 16., we entertained a confident expectation that the necessary school buildings would be very shortly provided. We are now enabled to state that buildings well adapted to the purpose have been commenced on a site at Sutton, which has been three years in the possession of the managers. Mr. Hall further states, in reference to the education of pauper children in the Metropolitan districts, that advance has been made in the establishment of separate schools, that is, schools distinct and removed from workhouses. The new Industrial School for Saint James, Westminster, on Battersea Common, and that for Saint George's-in-the-East at Plasket in Essex, are occupied, and working well. Schools for Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, at Brentwood, and for the Whitechapel Union, at Forest Gate, are begun; and negotiations are in progress for a site for a new school for the parish of Islington, the plans for which are now under the consideration of the trustees. When all the educational arrangements thus in progress are completed, the children of twenty-seven Metropolitan Unions and Parishes (of which the whole number is forty) will be placed either in district schools or in schools detached from workhouses, where they will enjoy the advantages of country air and industrial training, and be removed from the evils of workhouse association and habits.

As regards the education of pauper children in workhouse schools in other parts of the country, we feel justified by the reports of our Inspectors in stating that industrial training is on the whole making progress, and that in numerous instances the Guardians have adopted, or are about to adopt, such measures as the arrangements of the workhouses of their Unions and the quantity of land attached to them may admit, for the purpose of giving a more practical character to the instruction received by the children, by the employment of a portion of their time either in field or garden work, or in some handicraft labour. In other branches of instruction too we see reason to believe that in the instance of many workhouse schools a progressive improvement is taking place, a circumstance which we deem in great measure attributable to the efforts of the Guardians on this subject, and to the superintendence exercised by Her Majesty's Inspectors of Workhouse Schools.

We referred in our last Annual Report to the powers conferred upon Boards of Guardians by the 14 & 15 Vict. c. 105. s. 6., which enables the Guardians of one Union not adequately provided with accommodation in its workhouse for its pauper children receiving in-door relief to make the necessary arrangement with another Union, which may be better circumstanced in this respect, for the reception into the workhouse of that Union, in certain cases and upon certain conditions, and with the sanction of the Poor Law Board, of such a number of their pauper children as may be mutually agreed upon. In regard to this provision, Mr. Doyle states as follows: "I find little difficulty in inducing the Guardians to avail themselves, whenever it may be desirable that they should do so, of the power conferred by the 14 & 15 Vict. c. 105. s. 6. The Guardians of the Tamworth Union have contracted with the Guardians of the Burton-upon-Trent Union for the maintenance and education of their boys. The Guardians of the Clun Union have resolved to send the girls from their workhouse to Ludlow. In this way, wherever the formation of a District School is found to be impracticable, the advantage of a good education may by degrees be more generally diffused than even it is at present through the Unions of this district."

The average number of children attending the workhouse school in each Union in England and Wales during the half-year ended at Lady-day 1852, as well as the number attending the several district schools, is set forth in a statement at page 113 of the Appendix. This statement shows also the amount paid to the guardians in each case out of the Parliamentary grant in respect of the salaries of the teachers of the schools in question for the year ended at Lady-day 1852.

In our last Annual Report we referred to the measures then in progress in some Unions in which there had up to that time been either no workhouse, or none of an adequate character, for the supply of a deficiency which we believe to operate, wherever it exists, as a serious impediment to a sound and just administration of relief. We are enabled now to report that further improvements of a nature generally satisfactory have been made during the year, while others are now in progress or in contemplation.

Mr. Hall, the Inspector for the Metropolitan District, states in regard to his district, "Improvement has been made or is making in the workhouse accommodation of several parishes. The guardians of the East London Union have purchased a site, and are considering plans for a new union workhouse. The governors and directors of the parish of Saint George Hanover Square have resolved upon making important additions and alterations upon their premises at Chelsea, with the view of concentrating all their workhouse arrangements upon that one spot, before the expiration of the lease under which they hold their present workhouse in Mount Street, Grosvenor Square. The plans of the projected new buildings were approved by the Poor Law Board, but it has since been considered expedient to modify them, as it was found that the outlay would probably exceed the sum which the governors and directors were prepared to expend; the execution of the scheme is consequently retarded for a time. The new workhouse for Newington Parish (originally intended as a school, but adapted subsequently as a workhouse, as mentioned in former Reports) has come into operation, and is found to answer its purpose exceedingly well; and the two new workhouses for the United Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, are approaching to completion."

Mr. Pigott, whose district comprises the Unions in the counties of Berks, Buckingham, Kent (part of), Oxford, Surrey, and Sussex (part of), reports in reference to his district, "There are only two unions in my district in which any considerable outlay has been incurred in the improvement of workhouses, viz., in the Epsom Union, where a new hospital and receiving wards have been built at a cost of 1,500*l.*, under the order of the Poor Law Board dated the 24th April 1852. In the Oxford Incorporation the guardians, under an order of the Poor Law Board dated the 24th May 1852, have purchased ten acres of land in the parish of Cowley, and are constructing a building for the reception and employment of infant paupers, calculated to hold 200, at the estimated cost of 3,700*l.*"

Mr. Weale, whose district comprises the Unions in the counties of Bedford, Hertford, Huntingdon, Leicester, Northampton, Rutland, and Warwick, reports, "The workhouses in my district are, with one or two exceptions, in good condition, and during the past year the new Birmingham workhouse has been completed and occupied, and is one of the best I have seen. The Leicester workhouse has been almost entirely rebuilt, and is now very little in arrangement and accommodation inferior to that of Birmingham."

Sir J. Walsham, whose district comprises the Unions in the counties of Cambridge, Essex, Kent (part of), Norfolk, and Suffolk, states, "Improvements have taken place more or less extensively during the year in the workhouse accommodation of the following unions; viz.: Ely, Billericay, Dunmow, Halstead, Maldon, Ongar, Rochford, Saffron Walden, Tendring, East and West Flegg, Freebridge Lynn, King's Lynn, Great Yarmouth, Forehoe, Blean, Eastry, Gravesend and Milton, Isle of Sheppey, Blything, Hartismere, Hoxne, Mildenhall, Wangford, Woodbridge."

Mr. Hawley, whose district comprises the Unions in the counties of Dorset (part of), Southampton, Sussex (part of), and Wilts, reports, "Alterations and additions have lately been made in the workhouses of the following Unions for the purpose of providing for a more complete classification of the inmates, and the better accommodation of the sick: Alton, Bradford (Wilts), Chippenham, Droxford, Fordingbridge, Swindon, Malmsbury, Petersfield, Portsea Island, Southampton, Sturminster, Wimborne and Cranborne, and Wilton Unions."

Mr. Gulson, whose district comprises the Unions in the counties of Cornwall, Devon, Dorset (part of), and Somerset, states, "Two new workhouses have been opened during the year in Cornwall, viz., at Truro, where the new building will accommodate 400 inmates, and at Falmouth, where the new house will contain 300. At Helston the guardians have purchased a site, and have advertised for plans, and are taking the necessary steps to enable them to commence building their new workhouse early in the spring. At Plymouth the new workhouse, which will contain 600 inmates, is in a forward state, and will be ready for occupation in the spring. At Devonport the erection of a new workhouse, capable of containing 600 inmates, is contracted for and is commenced, and in the course of the ensuing year the workhouse accommodation, which has hitherto been so greatly needed in both these important towns, will be provided. The majority of the guardians of Camelford Union having signed the requisite consent, an order has been issued by the Poor Law Board, under which the guardians of that Union are advertising for lands and plans for a small workhouse for their use. The guardians of the Stratton Union and the guardians of Holsworthy Union have also respectively resolved to provide workhouse accommodation, and the majority of each board have signed the necessary forms of consent to enable the Poor Law Board to issue the requisite orders for building. When these workhouses are completed every Union in Cornwall and Devon will be provided with workhouse accommodation, the want of which has hitherto prevented that uniform system of administration of relief which is essential for the public interests."

Mr. Graves, whose district comprises the Unions in the counties of Gloucester, Hereford, Monmouth, Worcester, and South Wales, reports, "The new workhouse of the Bedwelty Union has lately been opened for the reception of poor persons, and the workhouse of the Merthyr Tydvil Union will probably be completed early in 1853. In the Gloucester Union a spacious detached hospital, built in connexion with the workhouse, is now occupied by pauper patients. Improvements have been made in workhouse accommodation at Neath and Stourbridge."

Mr. Manwaring, whose district comprises the Unions in the counties of Derby (part of), Lincoln, Nottingham, and the East, North, and West (part of) York, reports, "Considerable improvements have taken place during the year, and are now in progress, in several of the workhouses as regards providing increased accommodation for the sick, which is very satisfactory, as in most workhouses the sick wards, and particularly those for infectious cases, are insufficient." He names the following Unions as those in which such improvements have taken place; viz.: North Witchford, Spalding, Worksop, Stamford, Kingston-upon-Hull, Driffield, and Scarborough.

Mr. Farnall, whose district comprises the Unions in the county of Lancaster and part of the West Riding of York, states, "The Guardians of the Unions of Leigh, Ashton-under-Lyne, Bradford, Wakefield, Barnsley, Oldham, Warrington, and Wortley have taken possession of new and sufficient workhouses, while the Guardians of Garstang, Ormskirk, Barton on Irwell, Dewsbury, Salford, Bury, and Chorlton are either now building or have passed resolutions to build new workhouses, and important additions have been made, or are now making, to the workhouses of Liverpool, Manchester, Wigan, Prestwich, and Settle."

We have issued Orders, under the Act of 13 & 14 Vict. Vestries Act, 13 & 14 Vict. c. 57. ("An Act to prevent the holding of vestry or other meetings in churches, and for regulating the appointment of vestry clerks,") to the under-mentioned parishes in the course of the year; viz., for putting the entire Act in force, to the parishes of Eastbourne, Holbeach, March, St. Mary Abbots Kensington, Llanelly, Hendon, Croydon, and Barton-upon-Irwell; for the appointment of vestry clerks only, to the parishes of Portsmouth, Hillingdon, Epping, St. Margaret and St. John's Westminster, Chippenham, Cheshunt, Mortlake, Sedgley, Llanfair Caereinion, Sherborne, Nether Hallam, Ecclesall Bierlow, Wandsworth, Yardley, Kirkdale, Brampton, Mold, Thames Ditton, Llanasa, Speldhurst, Solihull, Hesket-in-the-Forest, Lyncombe and Wydcombe, and Enfield; and for providing vestry rooms only, to the parishes of Rotherham, East Stonehouse, Manchester, St. Mary Lambeth, Elland-cum-Greetland, Kenwyn, Callington, and Halstead.

Removal of Nuisances.

In consequence of the apprehensions which were felt in the autumn as to the progress of the cholera in the north-eastern portion of the continent, we deemed it advisable to address a circular letter* to the Boards of Guardians, directing their attention to the statutory provisions respecting the removal of nuisances, in order that steps might be taken in towns and villages to remove all such nuisances as might tend to generate or foster malignant fevers and diseases.

Division of Unions, and the formation of new Unions.

We have deemed it expedient to divide the Anglesey Union, and to form some of the parishes separated from it into a new Union, under the name of the Holyhead Union. Others of the parishes have been added to the Bangor and Beaumaris Union, while the remaining parishes constitute the present Anglesey Union.

We have also combined 31 parishes and townships situated in the neighbourhood of Ripon with that city, and have formed a new Union by the name of the Ripon Union. The Guardians having been duly elected took upon themselves the administration of relief on the 17th day of November last.

Regulations to Alverstoke and Chichester.

Orders have been issued for the regulation of the proceedings of the Guardians of the parish of Alverstoke, which contains the town of Gosport, and which has been long acting under the provisions of 22 Geo. 3. c. 83.; and similar regulations have been issued to the City of Chichester, the parishes in which are acting in a Union formed under a Local Act.

We shall next advert to the Acts passed in the last Session of Parliament which affect the laws relating to the relief of the poor. These are the 15 & 16 Vict. cc. 14., 18., 38., 59., and 81. The 15 & 16 Vict. c. 14. continued the operation of the several Acts which rendered the irremovable poor in Unions a charge upon the common fund for another year; and the 15 & 16 Vict. c. 18. likewise continued the Act which exempted stock in trade from rateability to the poor for the same period.

*Amendment
of the Law.*

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 14.

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 18.

The Commission under which the Poor Law Board exists would have expired at the end of the next Session of Parliament after the 23d of July last, but by the statute 15 & 16 Vict. c. 59. the Poor Law Board has been continued until the 23d of July 1854, and the end of the then next Session of Parliament.

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 59.

The 12 & 13 Vict. c. 8. and 12 & 13 Vict. c. 64. contained provisions respecting the power of Justices to act in cities and boroughs, and some doubt arose as to whether justices of the county could act under those statutes in such cities or boroughs. An immediate decision being required, and there being no opportunity of obtaining a judicial interpretation of the statutes, the 15 & 16 Vict. c. 38. was passed, which declares that in any city or borough all justices of the peace, whether of the county or the city or borough, may, if they have otherwise jurisdiction, act therein.

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 38.

The 15 & 16 Vict. c. 81. consolidated the several statutes relating to the county rate, and repealed those parts of the 7 & 8 Vict. c. 33. which apply to the payment of the county rate by Boards of Guardians of Unions, and those parts of the 12 & 13 Vict. c. 65. and the 13 & 14 Vict. c. 101. which relate to the collection of the county rate in parishes divided between counties and boroughs. The provisions thus repealed were, however, re-enacted in the consolidating statute.

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 81.

On the 25th of August 1852 we issued an Order for regulating the administration of out-door relief in certain Unions and Parishes to which the general prohibitory Order had not been issued. In consequence, however, of representations made to us by several of the Boards of Guardians to whom this Order was addressed, we were induced to rescind it, and to issue in its place a modified relief order.

Order dated the 14th December 1852.* We are happy to be able to report that the provisions of this Order are observed in the places generally to which it was addressed, and that we entertain the hope that it will effect a useful improvement in the administration of the law, and be ultimately alike beneficial to the guardians, the rate-payers, and the poor.

All which we most humbly submit to Your Majesty.

Signed by Order of the Board,

COURTENAY,

Secretary.

No. 2.

CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to Boards of Guardians on the above Order for regulating Out-door Relief.

*Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
August 25th, 1852.*

SIR,

THE Poor Law Board have thought it expedient to issue to certain Unions and Parishes, in many of which no regulations concerning out-door relief are now in force, a General Order regulating the administration of relief, and prescribing, among other things, an out-door labour-test for able-bodied males.

The principle kept in view in all the provisions of this Order is that which was established by the 43d Eliz., c. 2., namely, that the disabled poor should be relieved and the able-bodied be employed; which ruling principle of the Poor Law is laid down in these words by that statute,—the Churchwardens and Overseers shall “take order from time to time for setting to work the children of all such whose parents shall not, by the said Churchwardens and Overseers, or the greater part of them, be thought able to keep and maintain their children; and also for setting to work all such persons, married or unmarried, having no means to maintain them, and use (using) no ordinary and daily trade of life to get their living by; and also, to raise, weekly or otherwise, a convenient stock of flax, hemp, wool, thread, iron, and other ware and stuff, to set the poor on work; and also, competent sums of money for and towards the necessary relief of the lame, impotent, old, blind, and such other among them being poor and not able to work.”

The Guardians at the present day stand in the place of the Churchwardens and Overseers, and the Poor Law Board therefore address to them the following remarks explanatory of the several Articles of the Order:—

The Board are of opinion that where there is a commodious and efficient workhouse it is best that the able-bodied paupers should be received and set to work therein; but, looking to the circumstances of most of the Unions and Parishes in London and in some other populous places, they have not thought it expedient in this Order to prohibit out-door relief to any class of paupers; at the same time they leave the Guardians at liberty to offer relief in the workhouse only in every case in which they may consider it right to apply that test of destitution, or in which they consider that form of relief the most suitable to the necessity of the applicant and the circumstances of the case.

Article 1. prescribes that a certain proportion of the relief given to any applicant, whether infirm or able-bodied, shall be given in kind. The object of this provision is to prevent the misapplication of the relief furnished, and the general rule is to be observed whether work is exacted in return for the relief or not.

Article 2. prevents the practice of delivering a large amount of relief to a pauper at once in cases in which it is intended that the relief shall be for a considerable period, and the amount is consequently more than the immediate destitution of the pauper requires. The object of the Board in this article is mainly to save poor persons in the receipt of relief from being exposed to the temptation of expending at once money given to them beyond their present necessities.

Article 3. is intended to preclude the payment of rent, and the allowance of relief in other specified forms, which are not recognized by the law, and are at variance with the principle laid down in the statute of Elizabeth above mentioned. The cases here indicated are those which cannot, without great difficulty, be sufficiently investigated and watched by Guardians and their officers, and are, therefore, such as afford frequent occasions of deception.

Article 4. imposes a restriction upon the allowance of relief to non-resident paupers, with certain exceptions, wherein a discretionary power, subject however to the restrictions imposed by the other Articles of this Order, is left to the Guardians. It is obvious that relief to non-resident paupers is a form of relief peculiarly open to abuse, and the Poor Law Commissioners have in their minute of the 26th January 1841, printed in the Seventh Annual Report, App. p. 107., fully detailed the general objections and evils arising out of it. The present Order, however, in consideration of such relief having, in recent times, prevailed extensively, only provides for its gradual extinction, and still permits it in certain cases, where the denial might be most felt as a hardship. The relief of this kind which is authorized by the 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101. § 26., to widows, is necessarily excepted from the rule. The Guardians will remember that, in cases where the non-resident pauper is irremovable by reason of the late Removal Act, there is no legal ground for their granting relief, which if required should be given by and charged upon the Union or Parish of the residence.

Article 6. prohibits the allowing relief to an able-bodied male pauper out of the workhouse unless he be set to work, and kept at work by the Guardians as long as he continues to receive relief. Several cases, however, which are described in Art. 7. are exempted from the compulsory operation of this rule, though in all or any of them the Guardians may, if they think proper, upon a consideration of the circumstances, require work to be performed in return for the relief given.

The Board must observe that every payment made by Guardians to paupers ought to assume the form of relief, not of wages, and consequently should be measured by the wants of the applicant, and not by the quantity of work done. It is, therefore, of primary importance that the paupers should labour under vigilant superintendence, and should be required to execute a task fixed according to their physical ability.

The General Consolidated Orders provide, in the Unions and Parishes to which they have been issued, for the appointment, and prescribe the duties of a Superintendent of Labour (Arts. 153. and 217.) ; and where superintendence is mentioned in this Order, it is assumed that a Superintendent of Labour is, or is to be, appointed under one of those Orders, or, where they have not been issued, by the general authority of the body administering relief in the Union or Parish, and the Board also assume that he shall be competent, under the direction of the Guardians, to enforce the performance of the required task.

Article 8. directs that the Guardians shall, within thirty days after the time when they begin to put this test into operation, supply the Poor Law Board with full information as to the measures they have taken for giving effect to the provisions of the Order.

Article 9. The strict observance of this article is important for the correction of a prevalent error regarding relief by way of loan. It is not unfrequently supposed that there are cases in which though the Guardians may not give relief they may lend it. But this article points out that what cannot legally be given must not be lent ; and that the power of lending is only to be exercised where the Guardians think fit to do something less than absolutely give the relief applied for in cases where the application is lawful. In such cases, and in such only, they may lend it ; and such loans should never be made without being in due time strictly recovered.

Article 10. is a proviso upon all that precedes it with one exception ; and it is introduced for the purpose of guarding against any special case which may occur, so that, by means of the concurrent action of the Poor Law Board and the Board of Guardians, a departure in such case from the letter of the regulations may not involve the consequences of a violation of the law. The exception refers to the 3rd Article containing absolute prohibitions which can in no case be relaxed.

CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to Boards of Guardians on the above Order of the 14th December 1852.

*Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
14th December 1852.*

SIR,

I AM directed by the Poor Law Board to transmit to you a copy of the accompanying Order, which they have thought it expedient to issue in lieu of that of the 25th of August last, and to request you to lay before the Board of Guardians the following observations, in explanation as well of the circumstances which have led them to take that course, as of the differences which exist between that Order and the one now issued.

Since they issued the Order of the 25th of August above referred to they have received various representations as to the difficulties which, as it was conceived, would be experienced in carrying the Order, as then framed, into full operation. Representations have been made to them as to the hardship which a strict adherence to the letter of the first Article of the Order would inflict upon a certain class of poor persons in receipt of relief,—as to the inapplicability of Articles 5 and 6 to periods of great commercial depression and distress,—and as to the impression generally entertained by the Guardians of the several Unions and Parishes to which the Order is addressed that Article 10 would interfere unduly and inconveniently with the discretion which they, as the local administrators of the law, were desirous of exercising. The Board have also had the advantage of conferring with several gentlemen who formed part of a very numerous deputation from many of the Boards of Guardians affected by the Order, and have learnt from them in detail the nature of the objections which they entertained.

The Board beg, in the first instance, to point out, that, in issuing Orders for the regulation of relief and the guidance of the local bodies charged with its administration, they are only acting in obedience to the express directions of the Statutes under which they derive their powers, and which impose upon them the duty of issuing the necessary rules for the guidance and control of Guardians in regard, among other things, to the management and relief of the poor. (See 4 & 5 Will. 4. cap. 76. ss. 15 and 52.)

It is, however, always the desire of the Poor Law Board that the necessity and policy of all such rules and regulations as they may deem it advisable to issue should be recognized by the Guardians to whom they are addressed, and the Poor Law Board are fully aware that nothing can tend more completely to the successful operation of their Orders than such a recognition of their expediency on the part of the Guardians.

The Board, therefore, readily take into consideration the representations of Guardians respecting any new rules or regulations which may be issued for their guidance, and they have accordingly given their careful attention to the various points of difficulty and objection which, since its promulgation, have been submitted to them in reference to the Order of the 25th of August last.

The result of their deliberations has been to determine the Board to modify considerably Articles 1, 2, and 10 of that Order, and they have consequently deemed it expedient to rescind it in full, and to issue another Order embodying, amongst its other provisions (which are practically identical with those of the former Order), the modifications which they propose to make in those Articles.

In Article 1 they have omitted all words which relate to any other class of destitute poor than able-bodied males; and, as it is now framed, the Guardians have therefore full discretion as to the description of relief to be given to indigent poor of every other class. The Board cannot, however, but observe, that whilst they have introduced this modification in deference to the numerous representations of the Boards of Guardians who have addressed them on the subject, they entertain a strong conviction, which is justified by the practice of several well-managed Unions and Parishes, that a certain portion of relief may properly be given in kind, with benefit to the ratepayers and advantage to the poor. The Board are induced, therefore, to express a confident hope that this mode of relief, the beneficial results of which are attested by experience, will be generally adopted by Boards of Guardians in the due exercise of that discretionary power with which they are invested.

Words have been introduced in Article 2 limiting the obligation to administer the relief weekly to cases of poor persons resident within the Union or Parish, so as to avoid any inconvenience or difficulty which might be experienced in extending the application of the regulation to non-resident poor. The Board have also inserted words for the purpose of more clearly showing that there is nothing in this Article to prevent Guardians from directing that the relief ordered be given more frequently than once a week, if they think fit to direct that a portion only be given at a time. All that is necessary is, that each week's relief should be given within the week.

The Board have introduced important modifications in Article 10, which is now in substance to the following effect; viz., that in any case in which the Guardians deem it expedient to depart from any of the provisions of the Order (with one exception), and to report the fact of such departure, with the reasons for it, within twenty-one days, to the Poor Law Board, the relief given by them in the interval between the date of such departure and the receipt of an answer from this Board shall not be deemed to involve any violation of this Order. The modification thus effected in the Article leaves to the Guardians full and unfettered discretion to deal, in the first instance, with any special case in which they may deem it expedient to give relief in a manner at variance with the provisions of this Order, and only requires them to report to the Board the fact of their having given such relief, and the grounds on which they have done so. As the exceptions provided in Articles 4 and 7 are so numerous as to meet almost all cases, it appears to the Board that the instances in which the Guardians will consider it necessary to avail themselves of the provisions of Article 10 for the purpose of giving relief will, in all probability, be very few. While, therefore, the Board, on consideration of the special circumstances of many of the Unions and Parishes affected by the Order, and of the character of their population, have thought it expedient to introduce the modified provision now referred to, they trust that the judgment and experience of Boards of Guardians will lead them to abstain, as far as practicable, from any material departure from the sound principles of Poor Law administration upon which the Articles of this Order regulating relief are founded.

With regard to the other Articles of the present Order, as they are, with the exception of some merely verbal alterations, identical with the corresponding Articles of the former Order, the Board refer the Guardians to the explanatory Letter which accompanied the Order of the 25th August. They desire, however, to make one or two observations in reference to Articles 5 and 6, which, after much consideration, they have thought it right to embody unaltered in the present Order.

Article 5 prohibits the giving relief to able-bodied male paupers while employed for wages. The evils of such a system of relief have been found so great in practice as to be almost universally admitted, and are prominently indicated by the Legislature in the 4 & 5 William 4. cap. 76. s. 52. as forming the principal ground on which the Poor Law Commissioners were by that Act invested with the power and charged with the duty of making regulations for the due administration of relief to able-bodied persons. The Board desire, however, to point out, that what it is intended actually to prohibit is the giving relief at the same identical time as that at which the person receiving it is in actual employment, and in the receipt of wages, (unless he falls within any of the exceptions afterwards set forth,) and that relief given in any other case, as, for instance, in that of a man working for wages on one day and being without work the next, or working half the week and being unemployed during the remainder, and being then in need of relief, is not prohibited by this Article.

Article 6 is framed to meet an ordinary state of circumstances, and the Board must remark with satisfaction, that there appears to be nothing in the existing state of things to prevent its being carried into full operation. If, however, owing to any commercial pressure or general depression of trade, large masses of people should hereafter be thrown out of employment, the Board admit that great difficulty would exist in giving full effect to the provisions of the Article. In such an emergency, instances of which have occurred in former years, the Board would, upon the representation of the Guardians, be prepared at once, as on former occasions, to take such steps, by temporary suspension of this Article or otherwise, as might be expedient to meet satisfactorily and effectually the difficulty experienced. As a general rule, however, applicable to all ordinary circumstances, the Board believe that this Article is both practicable and well calculated to aid in securing a due administration of relief to the able-bodied male poor.

The Board have now laid before the Guardians such observations upon the accompanying Order as appear to them calculated to assist the Guardians in estimating the views by which the Board have been actuated, and in discharging the important duties which devolve on the local administrators of the Order.

They have, as will be seen, given careful attention to the representations made to them, and have willingly made all such modifications in the Order as have, after mature deliberation, appeared to them compatible with the due discharge of their public duty and the proper administration of relief in the Unions and Parishes affected by the Order. The Board have only, in conclusion, to express their hope that the course which they have adopted will be regarded as an evidence of their sincere desire to co-operate usefully and harmoniously with Boards of Guardians for the purpose of securing as sound and efficient administration of the law as practicable, and to leave as large a discretion to the Guardians as is consistent with the provisions of the law under which the authority of the central department and of the local administration is alike derived.

No. 5.

CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to Boards of Guardians on the Removal of Nuisances.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,

30th September 1852.

SIR,

THE Poor Law Board are desirous of directing the attention of the Guardians to the provisions contained in the Statutes for the removal of Nuisances and the prevention of Diseases (11 & 12 Vict. c.123. and 12 and 13 Vict. c.111.) so far as they relate to the powers and duties of the Guardians and their officers.

The recurrence of the disease of Asiatic Cholera in an epidemic form in some parts of the continent, though not sufficient to cause immediate alarm in this country, is nevertheless calculated to require a reasonable amount of care and vigilance on the part of all those public functionaries to whom the law has intrusted authority with reference to sanitary measures for the prevention of disease.

The Guardians will remember the duties which have been imposed upon them by the former statute in respect to complaints made to them of nuisances upon private premises. Under this statute, they can only act when complaints are made to them by individual householders, and have no power to commence any proceedings. By the latter Act 12 & 13 Vict. c.111. the Guardians are enabled to take measures for the removal of nuisances in private houses or premises upon a certificate of their existence from their medical or relieving officer.

It therefore appears to the Board to be advisable that the Guardians should communicate to those officers their desire that they should direct their immediate attention to this subject, so that when in the discharge of the duties of their respective offices they perceive that any nuisances exist, of the class and description to which these Statutes relate, these officers may certify the same to the Guardians.

The Board, however, consider it most important that the attention of these Officers should not be diverted from the full discharge of their ordinary duties, and they request the Guardians to express to them distinctly that these investigations and reports may be so conducted as in no respect to interfere with those duties.

To prevent unnecessary trouble and delay, the Guardians may in some districts find it convenient to supply their Officers with blank forms of certificates, to be filled up where they find that nuisances exist, and to instruct them to leave copies with the occupiers of the premises, so that the latter may remove the nuisances without the necessity of legal proceedings.

These steps will not involve the Guardians in any great outlay, and the Board do not consider it necessary that they should at present incur any additional expense by adopting other measures than those suggested in this circular.

The Board request the Guardians to take especial care that their Workhouse is in due and proper condition, as regards the ventilation, drainage, warmth, and general repair of the building, that there is no excess in the inmates over the prescribed number, and that no ward is improperly crowded. It appears also desirable that the Guardians should bear in mind those Articles in the General Consolidated Order, which empower them to make changes in the diet of the inmates as occasion may render necessary.

They beg, in conclusion, to assure the Guardians that, in carrying the suggestions of this Circular into effect, they may rely on receiving from this Board all such advice and assistance as they may be able to render.

No. 6.

CIRCULAR LETTER from the POOR LAW BOARD to Boards of Guardians on the Distribution of Grants to Teachers in Workhouse Schools.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall,
1st December 1852.

SIR,

THE Poor Law Board deem it necessary, after communication with the Committee of Council on Education, to make some modification in the plan by which the distribution of the Grant voted by Parliament towards the repayment of the salaries of teachers in workhouse schools is at present regulated.

The existing plan, which is embodied in the Board's Circular of the 6th May 1850, will, however, continue to govern the distribution of the grant till the close of the year ending the 25th of March 1853.

In the case of a teacher holding a Certificate of Efficiency from the Committee of Council, an allowance of 5s. is at present made from the grant in respect of each child in the school up to a fixed maximum. From the 25th of March 1853 it is intended that the allowance in respect of each such child shall be 10s., instead of 5s., up to the fixed maximum.

In the case of a teacher holding a certificate of Competency an allowance of 4s. is at present made in respect of each child in the school up to a fixed maximum. From the 25th of March 1853 it is intended that the allowance in respect of each child shall be 5s., instead of 4s., up to the fixed maximum.

The Guardians will also observe that under the existing plan the Committee of Council award Certificates of Permission, Nos. 1, 2, and 3, according to the attainments of the teachers. After the 25th of March 1853 their Lordships, acting on the understanding come to between them and this Board, will award only one description of Permission Certificates, which will be confined to teachers whose attainments would now entitle them to receive certificates of Permission, No. 1.

The plan, as detailed in the circular of the 6th May 1850, will in all other respects continue to be observed in the distribution of the Parliamentary Grant.

The following Table exhibits the sums to be allowed under the modified Plan to the several classes of Masters and Mistresses :—

PAYMENT FROM THE PARLIAMENTARY GRANT.
CERTIFICATE.	Sum allowed from the Grant, in respect of each Scholar, between the Minimum and Maximum Allowance.	MASTERS.		MISTRESSES.

To obviate any question as to the mode of regulating the allowance to the teachers, in cases where the boys and girls are instructed together in one school, under the joint superintendence of a master and mistress, I am directed to state that from the 25th March 1853 the boys' register of attendance will, as in the case of separate schools, guide Her Majesty's inspectors of schools in determining the average number of scholars for which the master should be paid, and the girls' register of attendance the average number of scholars for which the mistress should be paid, irrespectively of any intermixture of the two sexes in the same school or classes.

I am, &c.

Secretary.
